Smith River

By ETHEL GOODLIN

The Smith River American Legion and Ladies Auxiliary presented their annual Americanism potluck dinner, held at the Community hall on Friday evening, February 12, at 6:30 p.m. A large crowd was in attendance.

The tables set in the main hall were attractively decorated by Mrs. Patsy Westbrook, carried out the Lincoln theme with a log cabin and miniature army and red, white and blue candles.

Americanism chairman, Eunice Faris, presented the following program: Vocal duets, Gertrude and Christine Jepson with guitar accompaniment by Don Bryan.

Reading, "Respect to the Flag," Robert Browne.

Reading, "Gettysburg Address," Larry McClish.

Reading, Lloyd George Speech of 1920.

Singing, choral group of Smith River school under direction of Robert Browne.

Guest speaker was Gordon Weller of Gasquet, who reviewed the life of Abraham Lincoln. His talk was appreciated by all.

Closing invocation, Rev. James Shelton.

Vern Garvin, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Garvin, who spent almost two years on Okinawa in the U. S. service has returned home and has been discharged from army duty. He has not decided what he will do but will take a rest and help his father on the dairy farm at present.

Del Norte Pomona Grange No. 42 will be guest of Crescent Redwood Grange on Sunday, February 21 with a potluck dinner served at noon time. Pomona Master Leo Kloske will preside. All Pomona and subordinate Grange members are invited to attend.

SMITH RIVER WOMEN'S CLUB

Americanism was the theme of the Smith River Women's Club meeting held on Friday afternoon, February 5, in the clubroom of the Community hall. President Mrs. Lucille Lawn presided at a short business meeting. Reports were given by committee chairmen.

Library Chairman Martha Ulrich reported that the American Legion presented Smith River Library with two copies of "Seeds of Treason." In memory of Robert C. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrow Nelson, who made the sacrifice fighting for his country in Korea.

Announcement was made of the potluck supper and family get-together to be held at the Community hall on Thursday evening, February 25. General chairman is Mrs. Mabel Browne. Supper will be served at 6:30.

Guests at the afternoon meeting were Miss Jo-elle Brown, daughter of Mrs. Roy Brown, and Mrs. Sheila Bingham, guest of Mrs. Carl Diebold.

The decorations on the mantle of the clubroom carried out the Americanism theme, carried out the art corner theme, under direction of Mrs. Alyce Bolick, in absence of Mrs. Mabel Maris.

A copy of the Bill of Rights centered the mantle, with large portraits of Washington and Lincoln on the right. A lovely flowering plum arrangement completed the mantle decoration. A table carried out the art corner theme with a display of antique ceramics of chinaware from foreign countries and early American china, all loaned by club women for the art corner.

Americanism Chairman Alyce Bolick presented the following program:

Nayborhill News

By ELSA RAVEKES

Carl Mason is leaving for San Francisco this week on business. Carl was the engineer for Brookings Plywood Corp. and more recently was employed by a plywood firm in Alaska.

Mrs. Clara Kerns and Mrs. Edith Ackley were guests of Mrs. Mary Hanks Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sunderlin surprised the Hanks by stopping in for a visit before going on to their home in Portland. The Sunderlins were former Brookingsettes and were quite active in community affairs.

Bill Eickhoff and daughter La Rue have been doing all right with their bowling lately. La Rue bowls with Kerr Hardware team and Bill is with Plywood Dry Ends. They have won several dinners and other prizes in the last few weeks. Mrs. Alvina Eickhoff hasn't been idle, either, she and her committee have been busy getting ready for the quilt display which will take place this Saturday at the Chetco Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Behee and son Gregg and the Misses Norma and Dianne Cargill drove to Eureka Saturday. Norma and Dianne are living with the Behees at present. Mr. and Mrs. Cargill have rented a home in Harbor and have the other children with them.

Mrs. Bernice Swanson and children were visitors on Nayborhill this week.

Howard Mason is visiting here for a few days. Howard has a stock ranch at Mapleton, Oregon. He reports there was two feet of snow on the ground when he left there.

Jack McCarton was accompanied by Max Brainard and Art Bollinger on a trip to Grants Pass Sunday.

Mrs. Curt Butterfield and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don McCarton, for a few days. Mrs. Butterfield's home is in Medford, Ore.

The Lucky Sevens and Sevenettes met at the Stotenburg home Monday eve. Plans were being made for their dance coming February 27.

Barry Sage (Stotenburg's son) is the chaplain of the organization. Mrs. Stotenburg has been ill and had to cancel a dinner party she had planned on having.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schmidt enjoyed a drive to Crescent City Sunday, had dinner and took in an early show, then finished the day by stopping in at the Lee Drorbaugh residence where a hot game of Canasta was being played. It was 3:00 a.m. before the Schmidts finally called it a day! (It's great to be young!)

"Secret Pal" Valentines were flying around Nayborhill Sunday. Each member of Nayborhill club has a secret pal who sends her an appropriate card for each holiday Ring" and "Take Time to Pray," by Gertrude and Christine Jepson.

Eunice Faris, district literature chairman, gave a brief review of the book, "Key to Peace."

Guest speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Hulda Jorgenson, a native of Denmark, who recently became an American citizen. Mrs. Jorgenson, dressed in her native costume, spoke on "What American Citizenship Means To Me."

At close of the afternoon program, refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Eleanor Layman, and her committee. The white linen-covered table was centered with a lovely arrangement of pink rosebuds, white stephanotis and violets. Tea table decorations were by Mrs. Layman. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Lyle Redfield and Mrs. Leo Quinlan.

FLOWN TO GOLD BEACH

Mrs. Orpha Brown was removed from Seaside hospital to the County hospital, Gold Beach Thursday by plane. Mrs. Vern Smith will reside with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fairbank, Pistol River, while her mother is in the hospital. Mrs. C. M. Morgan, who has been here for some time, returned to her home in Rogue River Wednesday.

of the year.

Guess those signs of spring were a little premature and little ole groundhog knew what he was talking about. Well, we had a nice dream—even if we were awakened by a clap of thunder and a bolt of lightning.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McCarton and Mrs. E. Ravekes had a very enjoyable drive out to Cape Ferrel Sunday. It was a beautiful afternoon and dozens of little new lambs were lying on the hill slopes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reeser have been staying at the Hendricks home this past week. Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks went to San Francisco to the Furniture Mart and Mrs. Reeser was in charge of the store while they were away. Ray finally got his blond lady. Ida gave him a beautiful Reglon lamp. My gosh, Ray never will know when it's Xmas! (Of course it could be that Ida kinda liked that lamp herself.)
