NEWTONS HOME FROM WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Newton of Harbor have just returned from Portland where they attended the wedding of their daughter, Miss Ruth Newton, to Mr. John C. Stevens, on February 12. The ceremony was held at the home of Rev. William Wallace Youngston, followed by a reception for close friends and relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Whitelaw.

Miss Newton has been supervisor of the Southern Oregon branch office of the Boys and Girls Aid Society in Medford for the past year and will continue her work with the society in Portland. Mr. Stevens is a well-known civil engineer, associated with Stevens and Thompson, engineers, and Leopold and Stevens, manufacturers of engineering instruments. He has gained national recognition for his engineering work and is a past president of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Following a wedding trip to California, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will be at home at the Ione Plaza apartments in Portland.

WEATHER MAN HERE

Roy E. Wyett, field aid for the U.S. Weather Bureau, was in Brookings Tuesday to inspect and care for instruments at the local weather station.

Mr. Wyett also gave instruction to the personnel of the local station.

GOING TO SOUTH AMERICA

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bass, Oakland, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Moore. Mr. Bass will leave for South America the later part of the month where he has employment. Mrs. Bass will join him later. Mr. Bass is Mrs. Moore's brother.

BROWN IN HOSPITAL

Bill Brown, popular ex-police chief, is confined to Letterman hospital in San Francisco while undergoing medical treatment. He is not sure how long he will be there.

For those who would like to write Bill, his address is Ward L1, Letterman General Army Hospital, San Francisco.

HANSCAM STAFF AT NEW MODEL SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. "Steinie" Steinhauer and Roy Molino went to Portland Tuesday. They returned Sunday.

The two men, who comprise the sales and service department of Frigidaire Appliances at Hanscam's Shopping Center, were in Portland to get a pre-ue of the 1954 line of Frigidaire refrigerators. At the meeting, the new models were shown and features discussed.

Both Steinie and Roy were much impressed with the new models.

PIE PLATES AT DRUG STORE

Chetco Drug is now in the business of redistributing pie plates.

People who bought pies at the recent PTA pie sale are asked to return the plates. And, likewise, the persons that furnished the plates along with the pies may pick up the plates at the drug store as soon as they are returned.

TO TAKE TRAINING

C. O. Leonard left Wednesday morning to spend a day in Portland on business and three days in Salem where he will take an intensive course in appraising all types of property.

Mr. Leonard feels the course will enable him to give better service to his clients and to the community.

KERRS HAVE NEW GRANDSON

Mrs. Henry Kerr left Monday for Tacoma, where a new grandson had just been born. The child is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gomar Rettke of that city.

ACKLEYS AWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ackley left today for Salem and Portland. They will be away for about two weeks.

VISIT INJURED BROTHER

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kennedy and twin sons, Pat and Mike, journeyed down from Yoncalla to visit Archie's brother Elmer, who is in the Seaside hospital with a serious hip injury suffered in a logging accident two weeks ago.

Elmer is getting plenty of visitors, cards and good care, all of which is helping him to recover.
