Smith River

By ETHEL GOODLIN

The Smith River P.-T.A. is busy making plans for the annual smorgasbord to be held at the Community hall on Saturday evening, March 13. In addition to serving food, entertainment is planned for all. Ted Westbrook will furnish music at the Hammond organ. Keep this date in mind and plan to attend.

Robert C. Wilson of Washington has been appointed manager of Del Norte Cooperative Creamery at Smith River. He replaces Keith Young, who resigned to accept a position with the International Milk Company in Japan.

The ladies auxiliary of the American Legion Post 712 are sponsoring a rummage and food sale to be held Saturday, February 27, at the Community hall. Sale opens at 10 o'clock. Proceeds will be used to purchase and install a sink at the hall, also paint interior of the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Goodlin are enjoying a visit with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Goodlin and daughter, Miss Carolyn, of Honolulu, who arrived by plane to Los Angeles where they spent a few days visiting the sister of Mrs. Goodlin before coming to Smith River, where they will visit for several weeks.

The annual potluck supper and family get-together, sponsored by Smith River Women's Club, will be held Thursday evening, February 25, at the Community hall at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Mabel Browne is general chairman. An interesting program is planned for entertainment.

All are enjoying the beautiful sunshine again, after a week of rain, hail and cold weather, along with thunder and lightning, with transformer fuses being burned out. The Copco crew were kept busy repairing the blown-out fuses and other slight damage done to electrical wiring.

Members of the Smith River Women's Club are planning to sponsor a study group. Anyone interested is to notify President Mrs. Lucille Lawn and Mrs. Eunice Faris, district literature chairman.

Housewives can earn around $25 a week without leaving home if they can type and are willing to spend a few hours at the keyboard each day. Many businesses are using this method to cut down on office expenses. — Changing

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers returned home last week after being gone for about three weeks in the southern part of California. While there they visited several friends, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dyer who lived on the old road to Smith River for several years before moving south to Grover City.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Massett are happy to know that they have moved back to their home near the state line after being gone for the past three years, most of that time in Calpella.

A group of friends gave Fred Gustafson a surprise birthday party at his home Thursday evening. The evening was spent in cards and watching TV with refreshments served at a late hour. From the reports received, it was really a surprise, as Fred was in the bathtub when the gang arrived, with only ideas of getting to bed early for once.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Struebing returned home last week after making a trip to Portland and Corvallis. They visited their daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Asher, while in Corvallis.

Another Harbor couple who went to Portland recently on a combined business and pleasure trip were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson.

WEEK IN SAN FRANCISCO

Amber Campbell and her son, Dick, spent last week in San Francisco. They were joined there by Mrs. Campbell's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roussy of Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. Campbell's mother, Mrs. Ray Campbell of San Jose, returned to Brookings with them for a short visit.

HOME FROM VISIT

Mrs. Ruby Harvey returned Saturday from a visit in southern California with her sister, Mrs. Ethel Sherman. Mrs. Harvey went by train from Eugene.
