

HARBOR NEWS

This fine weather that most of all of us have enjoyed hasn't been a blessing to the dafodil bloom shippers as it has caused the blooms to come on too fast and the market is flooded. The lily growers are taking advantage of the nice weather though, and are getting their cultivating and first weeding underway.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harvey and son drove to Tulelake recently where they visited relatives for a few days. On the way home they were accompanied by Mr. Harvey's mother, Mrs. L. A. Harvey, who had been gone on a three weeks trip which took her south to San Jose and as far north as Eugene, before visiting in the Tulelake area.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Knee and two children left the latter part of the week to return to 29 Palms, California, after being at their home south of Harbor for ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Christensen returned last week from a trip which took them to Chicago and points in between where they visited relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedberg were able to bring their infant daughter, Karen Kristen, home from the Seaside hospital last week. The little miss, who was born about three weeks ago, had to remain in the hospital for a couple of weeks after her birth, for treatment for an R-H factor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Prevo of Medford are remodeling the former garage and storage building across from the Harbor Post Office, and plan to open a shoe repair shop in it. Mr. Prevo was in Gould's in the shoe repair department until Mickey was able to resume that work.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Morgan returned home the last of the week after enjoying a two week rock hunting trip to Castle Hot Springs, Arizona. They were disappointed in the amount of different varieties of stone they found, but did get some nice petrified wood.

Alan Woodruff and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Leslie Woodruff returned home Tuesday morning from Portland where Mr. Woodruff had gone to consult a chest specialist, Dr. Poppe. Mr. Woodruff had had pneumonia and his chest wasn't clearing up the way it should have. They were gone for five days.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shrader have moved to their new home, the former Jim Shrader place above the Winchuck river, the move be-

PAST NOBLE GRANDS HOLD MEETING

The Past Noble Grands club of Topaz Rebekah Lodge met Friday, February 26 at the home of Lucille Cole.

Several projects were discussed, and it was decided to ask everyone attending the next meeting to bring a suggestion for a name for the club, which will be chosen at that time.

Lucille Cole, Cleo Craig and Marie Hoar were appointed to draft by-laws.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Lucille Cole and Grace Zirbel.

Next meeting of the group will be April 23, at 8 p.m. at the home of Cleo Craig on Pine street with Marie Hoar, co-hostess.

ing completed Monday. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Elkin are in their house near the Lake Pleasant Plywood Corporation mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne spent the week end in Grants Pass with their daughter Helen Reiling and her family. Saturday morning they drove to Ashland to consult an ear specialist, and that evening the whole group attended the basketball game and saw Brookings trounce Henley.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Tolman spent a few days at their home in Harbor, returning to Bandon the middle of last week.

Miss Jeanne Dubs left recently to visit with relatives in Portland and Vancouver, and to look for work in that area.

Mrs. Steve Cate and Mrs. Donald Payne made a combined business and pleasure trip to Medford Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Banick have received word from their son, Clifford, that he has been transferred from sea duty on the Atlantic, to the Great Lakes Naval Training School where he expects to be for the next several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb and family have returned from Southern California where they spent several weeks.
