

BOWLING RESULTS

Commercial League

Things were all tied up in the Commercial League this week, as B and H Logging moved into a first place tie with Brooking Machine. B and H halved with Kerr Hardware, 2 to 2, while Brookings Machine dropped a 3-1 decision to Oregon State Bank.

It was all Bob Kerr's fault that it turned out that way. Bob rolled a 529, his first 500 series of the year, and it so astonished B and H that they just folded up.

VFW soundly thumped Barry's Bowler's, 4 to 0, and Brookings Market trimmed Harbor Garage, 3 to 1.

High game was scored by Bill Higham and Bob Dimmick, with 215 apiece, and high series by Bud McCourt at 529. Brookings Market took high team game and series, with 886 and 2415.

City League

The Plywood Dry Ends overhauled Wilbanks Market Tuesday in the City League, trouncing them, 4 to 0. The win left the two clubs deadlocked in first place.

Phillips Dad 'n' Lad and Rotary Club stayed tied for third place, as they won by identical scores. Phillips beat Hendricks 4 to 0, while Rotary took the Eagles by the same score.

Fox Brothers beat the Pond Lilies, 3 to 1, in the other game.

Christensen took top scoring honors, with 226 to 592. Plywood Dry Ends had high game at 840, and Rotary had high Series at 2427.

Cal-Ore League

Mellon's Millwork clung to their half-point lead in the Cal-Ore League by beating Curry County Lumber, 4-0, and Rod and Gun stayed right behind them with a 4-0 win over Westbrooks.

Azalea Lanes bounced Smith River Legion, 3 to 1, and Foster and Bolvi trimmed Pacific Motors 3 to 1.

Azalea Lanes had high team game and series, at 852 and 2451. Floyd Calph topped the singles, with 221 and 575.

Beaverette League

Tots to Teens still topped the Beaverettes, this week, defeating Freemans, 3 to 1. But Hanscams moved to within two points as they shut out Mincer's Jewely, 4 to 0.

VFW Auxiliary took the Cliff

House, 3 to 1, and Kerr Hardware beat Lesmeister's, 3 to 1.

Tots to Teens had high game and series, at 962 and 2735. Clara Goyke, as usual, topped the singles, with 193 and 543.
