

Nayborhill News

By Elsa Ravekes

Several of our Nayborhill folks attended the town meeting last Tuesday night.

Needless to say the subject was Pioneer Road and its deplorable condition.

The Council gave us their utmost attention and respect and convinced us they will do all in their power to improve the condition.

Its still a very disagreeable strip of road to travel over, but at least we haven't been mired down in the mud over our running boards lately.

Mr. and Mrs. John Back Jr. from Grayland, Wash., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hamness and son on their way home from a months vacation in Southern California. Mr. and Mrs. Hamness sold their home and Cranberry bog to the Back's in Grayland before moving here.

Mrs. Bernice and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Portiew were visitors in Nayborhill this week end.

Don and Jack Carton have been working on a work shop in one end of their new garage. The boys are doing a fine job. The work shop is partitioned off from the main garage and could be used as an apartment if needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Eickhoff (formerly of Nayborhill) had as their guests Friday Eve. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zumph and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ravekes. La Rue Ziegler (daughter of the Eickhoffs) baked a beautiful cake for the occasion, it being the birthday of Mr. and Mrs. Springer and Joe Zumph.

Well, now we've had every thing! Rain, wind, hail and snow! Some folks like snow and enjoyed our brief flurry, but I'm going to appreciate spring when it finally does get here.

That coon has had another dinner from the Hales chicken coop. He climbed over the fence this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reeser have been staying at the Hendricks residence for the past week. Mrs. Merrill (Mrs. Hendrick's mother)

Jerold Hendricks and the Reesers have been keeping house, and Ida has been caring for the store. The Hendricks have been at Camp Sherman on the Metolious River where Mr. Hendricks and Mr. Johnson have been building a summer home for the Hendricks.

Mrs. Anita Schmidt has been quiet ill for several days. She had a bad cold and it settled in her lungs. Anita is better now tho.

Mr. Chet Gragg has been having another bout with that Flu bug too.

We've had an increase of three more kiddies in Nayborhill this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh have been caring for Sarah Brown and Mr. and Mrs. P. Hanks have been caring for little Billie Jr. and Flora Jo Brown. The youngsters mother Mrs. Peggy Brown, has been visiting her husband Bill Brown, at the Ledderman Hospital in San Francisco. Bill has been very ill and recently has had a severe operation. Mrs. Brown is expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brainard and Jack McCarton motored to Gold Beech Sunday to obtain some Myrtlewood to build altars for the V.F.W. Hall.

Jack reports that the Rogue River has over flowed its banks recently and claimed a lot of good farming land.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Voutrin and Mr. and Mrs. Bice from Grand Ronde, Ore. were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. Phillips and daughter for a few days last week.

Mrs. Voutrin is the sister of Mrs. Wanda Phillips. Mrs. Phillips accompanied her sister to Grand Ronde for a few days visit. The Phillips' girls have been keeping house for themselves and their Dad while Mom's away.

Mrs. B. Miller, Mrs. Ethel Hale and Mrs. Helen Smith have been collecting articles of interest for a display table at the Flower Show.

Anything of historical value or an interesting nature study from this community will be appreciated. The ladies have hopes of enlarging their collection as time goes on and of finding a permanent place where the display may be enjoyed.

Mrs. Hale has a jar of Pollywogs in her class room at present. It won't be long before they will be hopping away.

The Weavers have decided to keep little Jimmy after all. He seems to fit into that special little place in their hearts.

A correction—last weeks news printed little Jimmie's brothers were Jay and Robert—it should have read Gay and Billie—also Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schmidt's son-in-law's name is Harness—not Hamness.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eickhoff and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ravekes attended the Smorgasbord at Smith River Saturday evening. They served over a thousand dinners between 5 p.m. and 9 p.m. It seemed like at least a third of the folks there were from Harbor or Brookings. A nice climax to the evening was attending the square dance at the Odd Fellows hall in Brookings.

SURPRISE DINNER HONORS BIRTHDAY

Colonel Lee Rice was surprised Sunday evening when Mrs. Rice arranged a dinner party in honor of his birthday.

Guests who celebrated the occasion with the Rices were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weidemann, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Guerretaz, and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nelson.

The Colonel was 39 on Tuesday.
