

Nayborhill News

By Elsa Ravekes

Some of the neighbors enjoyed a little preview of Blossom Behee's Spring recital at her home the other day. Some of her pupils were practicing and it certainly was good.

The P.-T.A. is sponsoring the Spring recital this year and it will be held at the High School April 29th. Blossom also has a couple of her pupils dancing at the Fashion Show.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Widmer and family spent Saturday evening visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeser and enjoying television—(no popcorn.)

Ray is just not his old self these days—seems he's grieving about a box of cigars he didn't get from some big oil man in town!

Mrs. Peggy Brown collected her little brood from Nayborhill Saturday afternoon. She says that Bill is doing fine and expects to be back in Brookings in a few weeks.

Mrs. Harriett Hammess and Mrs. Pete Schmidt took advantage of the beautiful sunshine Wednesday morning and visited with Mrs. Williams (formerly of Nayborhill) who now lives in the airport district.

Jack McCarton is working on the library project again—with nice weather coming on now, work will probably get started in a big way.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Thompson from Rogue River were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Weaver last week. The Thompson's have purchased a home in Brookings and expect to move here by next month.

Guy Weaver has been ill with a cold for several days and has lost three days of school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Franoluk and children have rented the Carl Mason home. Mr. Franoluk is employed by Fox Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Olson and George Gates were here for a couple of days last week. They have returned to Redding, Cal. where they are engaged in logging.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hanks Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Musser, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gott.

Mr. and Mrs. Musser have been living at Powell, Wyoming all winter and are leaving this week to return there. Their son Cal, and family have a cattle ranch in Wyoming.

Mrs. Fuch's (Mary Hanks' mother) has been ill for a few days but is feeling better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh have finished painting their kitchen. It is a creamy pink—and looks good enough to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schmidt were their guests Friday eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale M. Smith of Grants Pass and Miss Linda Hall of Medford spent the week-end with the Chet Graggs. Mrs. Smith is a daughter of the Graggs and was guest violin soloist at Brookings Bible Church Sunday morning. They all took their lunch and spent the afternoon at Harris Beach. Dale Smith is a senior at Southern Oregon college and Ruth is employed at Chapman Lumber company at Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eickhoff were guests of the Ed Ravekes Saturday evening.

Mrs. Pete Schmidt received word that her nephew Jack Schmechel was killed in Guam recently. He was serving in the Navy and the folks haven't received any details as to how it happened.

I guess the Hales have given up all hopes of raising chickens. Another hen was taken, leaving them only 5 so they have sold them. The only thing caught on the trap was their own big tom cat, and we know a cat couldn't have torn a hole in a wire fence.

So neighbors you better watch your chicken coops cause what ever has been taking the Hale chickens is going to be looking for another larder!

Mrs. Donna Stotenburg worked in Gould's Shoe store Saturday so as to enable Mrs. Peggy Gould and daughter Barbara, to spend the day in Eureka.

Barry Sage and some of his friends painted Barry's car this week.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

You Might Call it a
"Gravy Train"

Was reading the other day about a Maharaja in India who has a miniature electric train all made of silver. Now, maybe that's not unusual for a prince, but this fellow had it running around on an enormous dining table in the royal palace.

The twelve cars on the train are loaded with different kinds of fruits, nuts, and beverages. And the train stops automatically in front of each plate so the person sitting there can choose what he wants.

From where I sit, the Maharaja is really going to extremes to impress his guests. Around this part of the world, hospitality certainly doesn't need all those fancy trimmings.

You don't have to spend a lot of money or go to a lot of work when folks drop in. Just offer them what you have—coffee, tea, a temperate glass of beer—and let them make their own choice. They'll feel they're getting a royal welcome!
