

WRANGLERS PLAN
RODEO GRANDSTAND

The Chetco Wranglers have completed work on their new Rodeo ground, and are planning to begin construction of a grandstand in the near future.

Plans for the grandstand have been approved by the City, so construction can begin as soon as weather permits.

The Wranglers are also laying tentative plans for a Rodeo in connection with Lily Blossom Time, if the date for the Festival can be established in time to engage Rodeo.

Judge Charles Schaal returned home this week after a short hospitalization.

SMITH RIVER
By Ethel Goodlin

Mrs. Eva Hill spent Sunday, March 31, as a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett at Harbor, Oregon. Mrs. Crockett was host for a beautiful birthday dinner, in honor of Mr. Crockett, who was celebrating his birthday.

A gold cake, with yellow trimming and green candles was baked for him by his daughter, Carole Lee Freeman. Those present were Mrs. Eva Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Freeman, and daughters Donna May, Cindy and Susan Crockett, Joan Pettigrew, Vernon Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Garvin, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett.

Vernon Crockett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett, who is stationed at Fort Ord, has been granted a 30 day furlough to assist his father on his dairy farm. Mr. Crockett recently underwent a check-up at a Portland clinic, and must take a rest from farm work.

Among the Del Norte Pomona Grange members who attended the Curry County Pomona Grange held Saturday at the Chetco Grange Hall were the following: Master and Mrs. Leo Kloske, Mr. and Mrs. James Hocking, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKim, Mr. and Mrs. Everette Lewman, Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Phillips, Ethel Goodlin and Katheryn Wier.

Plans are being made by the Smith River Methodist Church for the annual Easter service to be held at 6:30 a.m. near the Shaker Church, just off the main highway.

Fort Dick Community Church plans to join in the service, and others may participate in the early morning service.

SMITH RIVER

Fashion Show Draws Crowd

A large crowd attended the Spring Fashion Show, presented by the Smith River American Legion Auxiliary at the Community Hall, March 23.

Early spring styles from Daly Brothers in Crescent City were modeled by the following ladies from Smith River: Mrs. Joe Reichlin, Mrs. Fred Owens, Mrs. Ann Blankenship, Mrs. Robert Browne, Mrs. James Hight, and Mrs. Fred Morrison. Junior styles were modeled by Michelle Browne, Jan Hight and Pepper Owen.

The stage was attractively decorated with huckleberry greenery and daffodils, making a pretty setting for the showing of the spring styles. Stage decorations were in charge of Mrs. Taylor Westbrook, Mrs. Charles Norman and Mrs. Dolly Lovenborg. Mrs. Carol Stambrough, of Daly's, was commentator. Refreshments were served at the close of the showing.

Flames Damage
Oasis Building

Fire last week gutted an apartment occupied by Mrs. Doris Norman and her family, above the Oasis clubroom. The flames destroyed all the personal possessions of the Norman family.

Members of the Smith River Fire department worked hard to prevent the flames from spreading to other apartments in the building. The firemen erected ladders to fight the fire from the second-story window, confining the flames to the Norman Apartment, but smoke and water damage was suffered in adjoining rooms, occupied by the Hobbs family.

The damaged building is owned by Miles Bobst.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Norman have been most helpful, sending bedding and clothing to help the family out.

The family is now living in the former Post office building, near Hight's store.
