ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Pack Meeting Features Speaker

Guy P. Miller, Boy Scout Executive of the Oregon Trail Council, Eugene, praised the local Cub and Boy Scout units of the area for their fine work. He spoke at the pack meeting held last Wednesday evening at the I.O.O.F. Hall.

At the monthly pack meetings each Cub den has on display an exhibit exemplifying the work of the month carried on during weekly meetings. The subject for April study was oil, Den No. 6, led by Mrs. Dorothy Hermann, received first prize for their display of an oil well made of balsam wood with tanks and oil-drilling equipment. The exhibit of Den No. 8 with Mrs. Margaret Phillips as den mother won honorable mention. The displays prepared by the clubs of the other three dens showed almost equal interest and enthusiasm of the subject at hand.

Harroun, at 185 and high series was by La Rue Ziegler at 441. Lesmeister's had high team game at 922 and Kerr Hardware had high series at 2587.

Stan Gribble had high series at 477, while Dave Eickhoff had high game at 192. The Brain Busters took team honors with 691 and 1907.

pared by the clubs of the other three dens showed almost equal interest and enthusiasm of the subject at hand.

Of the 45 boys enrolled in Cub Scouting numerous ones were presented badges and achievement awards by cub master, Ernest Wheeler. Howard Crane with some of his explorer scouts were present to tell the boys how Boy Scouting differs from Cub work. Bobby Dimmick and Jerry Smith spoke. A number of boys have reached the age of eleven years which makes them ready to become full fledged Boy Scouts.

Den No. 6 won the distinction of having the highest percentage of parents present. Donuts were served after closing ceremonies.
