impressive ceremony at the Guschu Church. His life was definitely one of service and kindness to others. His words and living example were undoubtedly an inspiration to many.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at the First Methodist Church, Smith River at 2 o'clock, day light saving time. Rev. James Shelton, pastor of that church, will be in charge of services with Rev. Charles Durden, Brookings, assisting. Under the direction of Roeder Funeral Home the body will be shipped to McMinnville where it will be laid to rest beside that of Mrs. Hicks who preceeded him in death in 1945. Grave services will be held there at Evergreen Memorial Cemetery Friday afternoon.

Surviving are: two daughters, Mrs. Una Rowley, Brookings, and Mrs. Vera Cochell, Salem; a son Clayton Hicks, Redmond, one brother, Henry C. Hicks, El Reno, Nebraska; a niece, Helen Hicks, Okla. City, Okla.; and four grandchildren, Dorothy and Loraine Rowley, and Bill and Roger Cochell.

Students Display At PTA Tonight

Installation of officers for the coming year, and a display of work done by the students will be the main features of the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher's Association tonight at 8 p.m. in the High School Gymnasium.

Also scheduled is a vote on the amendments which have been under discussion for several meetings. Music will be furnished by the elementary and advanced bands under the direction of Mr. Robert Dick.

Grayshel Named As Director of Barbershoppers

Charles Grayshel of Brookings was elected fourth vice-president of the SPEBSQSA, Evergreen District, at the annual meeting held in Tacoma Saturday, May first.

Dwight Calkins of Spokane was elected President of the organization, whose regional preliminary contest was held at the same meeting.

The Evergreen quartet of Yakima and the Varsitones of Seattle won the preliminary contest, and will represent the region in the International contest. The Sharp-Four of Eugene was named as an alternate quartet.

Bob Dick, Chorus Director of the Brookings Chapter sat in with the judges. Bob is a candidate for judge in the Balance and Blend category.

HERE FROM SEATTLE

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Abraham of Seattle are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilbanks.

Mr. Abraham is Mrs. Wilbank's brother. The visitors plan to spend a couple of weeks here.
