According to a notice from the Curry County clerk the following voters will be listed in the Harbor poll books: Phillip F. Chadbourn, Hazel J. Eikenberry, Elsie T. Foster, Harvey Foster, James R. Harper, Adaline Kerr, Henry Kerr, Harold L. Putnam, Mary Putnam, Anna M. Schrader, Diva Stoller, Richard Sund and Margaret E. Bloomquist. These changes are a result of the splitting of the Brookings precinct which, upon checking the registrations, showed the above voters resident of neither of the new precincts.

About two hundred voters failed to return the cards sent out by the clerk, which they were asked to return with a note in which precinct they lived. This list has been locally gone over and, so far as possible, without personal visits to each delinquent, returned to the county clerk who will enter the names on the poll books indicated by the local checking.

Another longtime resident of several years ago has passed away. Hiram Hight, 59 died, suddenly April 26th, at Montague, California. The son of Jesse and Rose Ransom Hight, he spent his early years in the area and latterly, in a home on the same spot as the Lloyd Harbin house. He is survived by his wife, June, of Redwood City, daughter, Mrs. Rosalrah Jesser, and three grandchildren, of Kodiak, Alaska, and many relatives in both Curry and Del Norte counties.

It looked like a Dutch treat deal a local couple was working. A news paragraph says they're vacationing "together out in the Valley. Then, in the "classified" there's a "Not Responsible," notice by one of them. Which shows to keep up on this and that, read ALL the paper!

Mrs. Bob Goyke spent part of last week with her daughter's family in Chehalis. One of the grandchildren had an operation.

Ben Harroun is getting used to some altered physical geography resulting from a visit to surgery in Crescent City.

DANCE RECITAL DRAWS CROWD

Students of Blossom Behee presented a dance recital Thursday evening to a capacity audience at the High School gymnasium. The recital was sponsored by the Parent Teachers's Assoc.

The first half of the program consisted of a variety of ballet numbers, the second half included a ballet story, The Crystal Gazer, and several numbers of tap, ballet, and toe done with black light. All the costumes were beautiful, and the black light made a very unusual effect.

The adagio "Sea Lure" which was to have been the climax of the show, and which was very well performed at rehearsal by Stanley and Dianne Cargill was omitted because of an accident Stanley had while playing baseball.

Special awards were given following the program to students for cooperation and good attendance during the school season. First prize was won by Judy Kemp, with Claudia Schroeder winning second, and Jimmy Donnelly third.

Special awards were given to Judy Kemp for composing a baton-tap dance, and to Dianne Cargill for a ballet composition to Rubenstein's "Romance."
