SMITH RIVER

By Ethel Goodlin

Among the mothers honored on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 9, was Mrs. Eddie Westbrook, a pioneer of Smith River, who will be 90 years old in August. She was guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Westbrook, their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Westbrook, and two children. The family motored out to Patrick's Creek, on Highway 199, where a bountiful luncheon was served.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Smith River Methodist Church was held Monday evening at the church, with District Superintendent, Rev. Don Baldwin of Santa Rosa presiding at the official board meeting.

Mrs. May Haight of Alviso, California arrived on the bus Saturday, to spend Mother's Day here as a guest of her two sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Carlson Haight, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Haight. Mrs. Haight is a former resident of Smith River.

Reece Shelton, with the United States Navy, and recently stationed in Oakland, is spending a leave with his parents and his sisters, Rev. and Mrs. James Shelton and daughters.

He will report to Oakland soon for overseas duty.

Mrs. Carl Diebold entertained at an open house one recent evening, honoring her husband who was celebrating his birthday. Employees and their families of the Diebold Mill and friends called during the evening to extend birthday greetings. Early spring flowers decorated the rooms and refreshment table, which was centered with a large birthday cake. Guests were served cake, coffee and punch. Mrs. Diebold was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Dean Bramer, and Mrs. Tom Kaufman of Oregon, and friends, Mrs. George Kaiser, Mrs. Leo Quinlan, and Mrs. Stanley Garner of Smith River.

MRS. HORN HONORED

Mrs. Ross Horn was given a farewell party by the Birthday Club Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Bickner. At pin-ochle Mrs. Dorothy Simpson won high prize and Mrs. Ada Bennett low. Mrs. Reta Tierce and Mrs. Simpson were partners for the traveling 300 prize. Mrs. Horn was given a yellow wool blanket as a parting gift.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

The "Write" Prescription

Noticed three half-finished letters lying on the counter down at Jones' Drug Store last week. "Writing three at once, Doc?" I asked.

"No," Doc said, "you are—you and the rest of the town. Those are for the boys from our town who are at the National Guard encampment."

"Everyone who comes in adds a line or two, and when a couple of pages are filled, I mail them. That way the boys hear from folks who might not write otherwise. They sure do enjoy it."

From where I sit, little things can add up pretty big. A few short notes make a letter. Boys from our little town help build up a strong National Guard to protect our freedom. Even freedom is made up of a lot of things—living where we like, voting the way we think is right, choosing between coffee, tea, or beer at dinner. And anything that adds up to freedom gets my stamp of approval.
