

HARBOR NEWS

Invitations have been received here to the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann (Patsy) Cagley to Harold Putnam at the Emmanuel Episcopal Church in Coos Bay on May 29th at 2 P. M. Patsy is well known here, as she is the daughter of Mrs. Bernice Cagley, and a niece of Mrs. Bernadine Steele and Mrs. Bertha Beers.

Phil Buteau returned home Friday after visiting a week in Medford. While there he bought a new Chevrolet Club Coupe and he will fly to Detroit June 1st to take delivery at the factory. He then plans to drive to his home town of Merrill, Wisconsin, and visit relatives and friends, among whom will be the Carl brothers, former local residents. He will also take in two of three weeks fishing there for pike, muskellunge and bass. On his way home he will visit his sister in Spokane, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Scott surprised their daughter, Mrs. James Nichols and family last Friday when they arrived from El Centro for a two weeks visit here with them.

Friends enjoyed renewing acquaintance with John Lundborg, who visited here last week. He will be remembered as one of the most popular of local residents in the 1930s as he played the accordion at most of the dances and parties in the area.

A special meeting of the Grange is being held Thursday evening to initiate a group of candidates in the 3rd and 4th degrees. The regular meeting falls on Friday, but as the election is held in the hall, it will be necessary to start that meeting an hour late or at 9 P. M.

Remember to vote—in Harbor at the Grange Hall from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. You vote in the kitchen so go to the back door of the hall.

CITIZENS of Brookings and Harbor

I solicit your votes, not because I have my office in Brookings and live in Harbor, but because I sincerely believe that it will be to the best interest of the whole of Curry County.

The important question is not, where within the County does the candidate live, but rather it is, does he have the qualifications for the office.

I gave my opponent full opportunity to prove that he is qualified for the office. When he was my deputy he failed to prove that he was qualified for the office, and he failed to prove that he would put District Attorney work ahead of his other endeavors. I look to his record, not his campaign promises.
