HARBOR NEWS

Pete Stoller is recuperating at his home this week following an accident near Smith River Saturday evening in which his new Jeep pick-up was a total wreck.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hart of Southern California are spending a short time here looking after their property, the former Mark Wood place above Harbor.

Mrs. Ruth Bathiany and Mrs. Geraldine Randall spent the weekend in the Camp White area on a rock hunt. They found some nice agates, but it was too hot in that desert area to hunt too long.

Mrs. Carl Bolin of Glendale, California, is spending a few days here on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Tolman drove down from Bandon Friday to cast their votes in their home precinct, returning north on Saturday or Sunday.

Raymond Reekman left Sunday to return to his carrier, the Yorktown, in San Francisco bay, after enjoying a two week leave at his home here.

FLIES TO SEATTLE

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilbanks drove to Grants Pass Sunday where Frances took a plane to Seattle where she will spend several weeks with her family.
