Drain Series Rained Out

Rain finally stopped the Brookings in a home game Sunday. The league leading Drain team made the trip to Brookings for a league double header but plate umpire Clay Clayton called the first game at the end of the 4th with Drain leading 7 to 3 when it was very evident that it was too wet to continue play.

Brookings first fielded a ball club in 1948 and Sunday was the only time that rain has interfered with a home game.

Drain had non-league games scheduled at home for July 3rd and 4th but in order to get in the two rained-out games with Brookings, the exhibition games have been cancelled and the Beavers will make the trip to Drain for the holiday games.

The Beavers were scheduled to play Roseburg here this com-

Examinations Set For Army, Navy And Air Academies

Congressman Harris Ellsworth announced today that competitive examinations will be held Monday, July 12, for appointments to va-ing Sunday, however, that club has dropped out of the league, leaving Brookings without a game. All efforts have failed to line up a replacement. In order to keep the players in shape, the team will be divided into two nines for a practice tilt on the local diamond Sunday afternoon.

Frank Burdell who played for Brookings during the 1952 and 1953 seasons and who attended the Institute of Foreign Trade at Phoenix, Arizona, the past school term, reported to the team over the week-end and is expected to add to the Beaver batting punch. Bob Selsor of Long Beach, California, and short stop for Brookings last season, is also scheduled to arrive this week.

The next league series for the Beavers will be at Medford June 26th and 27th.

cancies at the U. S. Naval Academy, U. S. Military Academy, and the U. S. Air Force Academy. The examinations will be conducted by the U. C. Civil Service Commission at post office buildings in Albany, Coos Bay, Eugene, Gold Beach, Grants Pass, Medford, Reedsport, and Roseburg.

Candidates for the Academies must never have been married and must be bonafide residents of the Fourth Congressional District. As of the date of entrance into the Academies, July 1, 1955, appointees must be 17 years of age. The maximum age of entrance for all Academies is 22. Candidates now in the Armed Services are also eligible to compete.

The examinations will be limited to vocabulary, reading, spatial relations, and algebra. Nominations of principals and alternates to the Academies will be on the basis of grades earned in the competitive examination.

This is the first competitive examination for appointees to the Air Force Academy, the location of which has not yet been determined. Only three vacancies will be available for the State of Oregon. Each Member of Congress may name ten candidates who will engage in the State-wide competition for the three vacancies in March, 1955.

Candidates desiring to compete for vacancies at the Academy should notify Congressman Ellsworth at the House Office Building, Washington, D. C., not later than June 20.
