The dance will be held Saturday night, July 10, starting at nine P. M., at the Chetco Grange Hall. Music will be by the Six Lily Blossoms.

Beavers Face Medford Sunday

The Brookings Beavers, drawing a bye in the Southern Oregon league schedule due to Roseburg dropping out, played an intersquad game on the local diamond, Sunday.

A mine with Frank Burdell catching and Tony Troncale and Jim Barrett on the mound defeated Bill McLean's squad 3 to 1. Jim Kelly and Ron Westerner hurred for the losers.

Bob Selsor, stellar shortstop for the Beavers last season, reported over the week-end and had his first work-out Sunday. Selsor led his Long Bach City college team in hitting this spring with a hefty .300 average. His team also won the California State Junior College championship with 35 wins and only 6 losses.

Receiver Lloyd Russell has quit the Beavers leaving the club with a serious void in catching. As a result of a phone call it is believed that Jim Johnson, ace receiver for the Long Beach City
