REV. HARTNELL LEAVES FOR CAMP

Elder Calvin Hartnell, pastor of the local Seventh-Day Adventist church, has joined other ministers in preparing the 73 acre camp ground at Gladstone for the church's annual camp meeting, to be held July 23 to 31. This is the 77th meeting held by the church in Oregon.
The Oregon encampment is one of the three largest operated by the Adventists in North America. The present site at Gladstone accommodates 331 cabins, 1200 tents and a large number of meeting houses. The auditorium has a seating capacity of more than 7,000.
The park is used during the year for other religious conventions. In June the church made the grounds available to state and county Civil Defense Agencies. They will also be used by Civil Defense in cases of emergency.

Typing Service Available At Chamber Office

The Brookings Chamber of Commerce announced a new service for local people this week, and at the same time it doubled the staff of the local information center. The center will be named every morning by Sherill McClain, of Brookings. While on duty, Miss McClain will also operate a typing service.

By Combining the two operations, the Chamber will obtain Miss McClain's services in exchange for providing her facilities to operate her typing service.
