

HARBOR NEWS

Don Jaklewicz arrived home the first of the week from Guam where he has been stationed with the Navy Seabees. After a thirty day leave, he will return to the Bay area for his discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond (Bud) Asche and four children of Milwaukie, Oregon spent several days in this area visiting relatives and friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Asche are former residents of this area, Mrs. Asche being the former Cora Mae Miller. They were houseguests at the home of Mrs. Miriam Barnes in Smith River while here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hanscam Sr. had as houseguests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cushing and children of Ontario California. Mr. Cushing and Vernon and Merle Hanscam were fraternity brothers while attending the University of Oregon.

D. F. Masset drove to Arcata Sunday and when he returned home that evening he was accompanied by Mrs. Masset who had been visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Tworek. Mr. Tworek, who had spent last week here helping Mr. Masset in work on their house near the state line, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. H. J. Weigel, Mrs. N. V. Strommen and Mrs. Kathryn Lewis made a trip to Elkton last Tuesday to take the Weigel grandson, Charles Henderer Jr. home after he had been visiting here for a few weeks. Other houseguests at the Strommen and Weigel homes last week beside Mrs. Lewis of Los Angeles, were Mr. and Mrs. George Weigel of Portland.

Miss Agnes Hensley and Mrs. Paul Shrader of Los Angeles are visiting here this week. Miss Hensley with her mother, Mrs. Sy Payne, and Mrs. Shrader with the Guy Shrader family.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Green of Garibaldi, Oregon and Mrs. Verle Harris of Los Angeles were visitors at the Mike Griffin home near Jacks Creek last week. Mrs. Harris is Mr. Griffin's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Green, his uncle and aunt.

The rain drove in the crew from the Fred Gardner Chrome mine near Vulcan Peak last Friday as it rained much harder at that high altitude than it did near the coast. They killed a 250 pound bear which they caught in a trap on their way in, near Slutsher Prairie. They report that so far they have shipped 25 tons of chrome ore, two loads of it being concentrate and the third load high grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Ask and family arrived Friday evening for a weeks visit here at the home of Mr. Ask's mother, Mrs. Fred Gustafson. They are enjoying visits with their many friends in Brookings and Harbor, but are amazed at the change in this area even in the short time since they were here. Mr. Ask was in partnership with Bud Stotenburg a few years ago in the Texaco Station.

Bobby and Donna Thompson, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson are spending the summer with their maternal grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Girsby in Paradise, California.

Vic Reynolds left by air from Crescent City the middle of last week for Massachusetts where he will visit at the home of Mrs. Reynolds sister, Mrs. Ellery W. Gordon and other relatives while taking care of business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Withrow and daughter Zillah of Los Angeles are visiting for two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pearmine. Mrs. Withrow and Mrs. Pearmine are sisters.

Wesley Smith returned home the middle of the week after spending several days in La Grande at a family re-union. While gone he also visited Judge Charles Schaal at Barnes Veterans Hospital in Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Banick returned home the Fourth of July from a two months trip. After attending the graduation of their son, Clifford, from the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, they drove up into New England and down the Eastern seaboard. They returned home by the southern route. Clifford who was able to be with them for a week on their trip, is now stationed as an electrician on a ship out of the

An ancient landmark has all but been destroyed—Stone Corral. Unsympathetic "cat - skimmers" have pushed away the huge, dry wall enclosure, east of Low Divide, on the old Smith River-Kirby stage coach road where drivers of those days exchanged horses. Not so many years ago this corral surrounded about a half acre, ringed about by heavy rocks, four feet or more high.

In neighboring canyons are
