Growers Get Special Award At Lily Show

The Lily Grower's Association brought back a purple ribbon from the International Lily Show, held in Seattle July 17 to 21.

The ribbon was a special award for the Association's display of Croft, Estate, and Ace Lilies which was the center of attraction at the Seattle show.

The display showed banks of local lilies in front of a backdrop of redwood trees. The background painted by Alice Rausch, was used first for the Azalea Garden Club's flower show here during the Azalea Festival, and then transported to Seattle, where Mrs. Rausch redesigned it.

With the display went Mrs. Rausch; Mrs. Mae Stafford, President of the Association; Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Strommen and Mrs. Henrietta Reimann of Arcata.

The Lily show saw blossoms from growers all over the world on display. The association entered no blossoms in competition.

Service Station Robbed Tuesday

Burglars broke into Brookings Mobile Service, Tuesday night, and escaped with $100.00, it was reported to Brookings police.

The thieves entered the building some time after midnight, the owners reported, breaking windows to get into the building.

It was the station's second hold-up, having been robbed about two years ago.

Juvenile Held For Rape Attempt

A sixteen year old boy was being held in the Coquille jail this week on a charge of being a delinquent juvenile by reason of attempted rape.

The boy was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Wes Smith and Brookings Police Chief Bud Cross, on a complaint by the mother of an 11 year old girl. A hearing will be held in Juvenile Court at Gold Beach Tuesday.

According to the complaint, the boy attacked the girl while she was walking in Azalea State Park, she broke away and screamed, and the boy ran. Chief Cross trailed him to the City limits, then asked help from County officials, and he and the Deputy Sheriff followed the boy to his home.
