

Norma Anne Felipe Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Herculano Felipe have announced the engagement of their daughter, Norma Anne, to Mr. James A. Archibald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Archibald of Medford. The wedding is set for October. (Brookings Studio Photo)

SMITH RIVER

By Ethel Goodlin

Word was received here telling of the death of Sam Bettencourt, 80, who passed away July 25 at Eagle Point, Oregon.

Mr. Bettencourt is well-known here, where he followed ranching for many years.

Funeral services and interment will take place at Coquille, Oregon, July 28.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Marian McIndoe of Smith River; two sons, John Bettencourt of Eagle Point, Oregon, and Manuel Bettencourt of Coos Bay, Oregon; six grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren.

Gordon Miller, of Smith River has recovered from injuries he received in an auto accident recently.

Miller was struck head-on by a north-bound car at Malarkey Redwoods, south of Fort Dick. The driver of the other car was killed instantly, and his wife severely injured.

Bruno Braido, accompanied by his father, Louie Braido, went to Deer Lick Springs recently, where his father will remain for several weeks.

Mrs. Eddie Eagles, who underwent surgery at St. Joseph's hospital in Eureka, recently, is recovering satisfactorily, and will soon return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Zee and two sons left Tuesday for several weeks' vacation, visiting relatives in Woodland and Santa Rosa. Mr. Van Zee is chief at the bug station.

Rev. James Shelton and family are spending this week at Mt. Shasta, where Rev. Shelton is in charge of a youth group. Nearly 100 young people of the church are at camp for the week.

MUSTARD! SALMON?

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis returned Wednesday from a business and pleasure trip to Los Angeles. After car trouble they returned with a new car. Mrs. Davis upon learning of the arrival of the new granddaughter, Lois Axline, put mustard in the salmon loaf. Paul says she may get a copyright on the new recipe. Not bad?

Mrs. Leo Quinlin of Smith River was the winner of the lace tablecloth given by the Altar Society of Star of the Sea Catholic Church during the Lily Festival.

TELEPHONE SERVICE?

Telephone service has been poor all week within the area, due to difficulty with the mechanical processes. No cases of not being able to reach operator, Crescent City, were reported.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith, Portland celebrated their third wedding anniversary last evening with a dinner party at White Rock for the family. Glenn Hurst was able to attend, this being about his first time out. He must take it easy yet.

Mrs. Harold Crump and Janet left for Portland this morning. Janet will have medical attention while there. Junior was left at the Aker's home.
