

Birth Certificate Needed For School

Parents of children needing birth certificates for admission to school for the first time this September were asked Wednesday by the state board of health to obtain them before the fall rush starts.

Deane L. Huxtable, state registrar, said that the number of requests for birth certificates for admission purposes within the next two months is expected to be among the heaviest in Oregon's history, and he warned that "last minute" applications may be delayed.

Huxtable emphasized that not all schools require birth certificates for admission. In the event a certificate is needed, parents should apply to the vital statistics section, state board of health, 1400 S. W. 5th Avenue, Portland 1, giving the name of the child, place and date of birth and full name of parents. A charge of $1.00 is made for each copy of a birth certificate, which should be enclosed with the request.

The state board of health files Oregon records only, but Huxtable said his department would furnish information how certificates may be obtained for births occurring in other states.

DR. SMITH'S FATHER ILL

Before going to press it was learned that Dr. R. E. Smith had returned Wednesday from Portland. He was called by the sudden illness of his father, Dr. W. E. Smith, dentist. Dr. Smith reports that his father is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

THOSE WE LOVE

By Mark Wildgrube

They say the world is round—and yet
I often think it square,
So many little hurts we get,
From corners here and there.

But there's one truth in life I've found
While journeying east and west.
The only folks we really wound
Are those we love the best.

We flatter those we scarcely know,
We please the fleeting guest,
And deal fully many a thoughtless blow
To those we love the best.

PAL

By Mickey Warthen

With mottled coat of shaggy hair
Your sharp ears at attention,
And tail held in suspension.
You sit so still and silent there

I keep my eyes away, and yet—
I see you growing thinner.
No sound or motion to upset
Me while I eat my dinner;

I wonder if your dog mind knows
How each bite loses flavor,
As in my mind conviction grows
A morsel you would savor.

And do you know as there you sit
With bright eyes softly pleading
My conscience hurts a little bit,
My appetite's receding?

Here, take this bite my shaggy pet,
Your patience has undone me;
You've gained your point and need not fret;
You know full well you've won me.

Had men the patience you have shown;
Could they so well apply it,
Then peace and plenty would be shown
And all would profit by it.
