

HARBOR NEWS

Mrs. Kay Maybe, a laboratory technician for the city of Pasadena, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Reynolds last week. They took her on her first real river barbecue and as Vic is famed for his barbecues she reported that she really enjoyed it. Mrs. Maybe continued on north as she planned to visit Lake Louise and Banff before returning home.

Mrs. Sy Payne and her niece, Miss Nell Fox of San Francisco arrived by Southwest Airways last Tuesday. Mrs. Payne had accompanied her daughter, Miss Agnes Hensley, when she returned to Los Angeles three weeks ago, and visited with her, then on the return trip visited relatives in the Bay area. Miss Fox will return home after a short visit here.

Mrs. Janice Felio was surprised last week to receive a phone call from her husband, Ernest, in Hawaii. Mr. Felio who is in the Navy, should be home this week and receive his discharge. He has spent the last few months on a mine sweeper, but most of his sea duty was on a carrier.

Kenneth Payne was able to be brought home from the hospital Monday where he was taken Thursday after being hurt while working in the woods. He stumbled and sprained his ankle, then fell with his chain saw and one of the dogs on the saw punctured an artery in his leg. He lost a great deal of blood, but it has been built up now, and he is hobbling around on canes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher and sons of Portland arrived Friday for a several days visit here with their aunt, Mrs. Ruth Bathiany.

Mrs. Gene Reiling and four children of Grants Pass and her three nephew and nieces, Shirley, Joan and Michael Hickman of Portland were overnight guests at the home of Mrs. Reiling's parents, Ma and Mrs. Herbert Payne Thursday. They continued on to Coos Bay where the three Hickman children remained, while Mrs. Reiling and her children returned here to spend the weekend. They were accompanied here from Grants Pass by Mrs. George Anderson who is visiting for a few weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Hanscom Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jordan are the parents of an eight pound, three ounce son born at the Seaside hospital last Sunday. They have named the little newcomer Arthur Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shipley are the parents of a nine pound, eight and a half ounce daughter born August 1st at the Seaside hospital. They have named the little miss, Julie Katherin.

Elmer Miller is here visiting at the home of his wife's sister, Mrs. E. L. Miller and family. He is an old timer in this area, and took out a homestead on Wilson Creek up the Chetco about forty years ago. He had the foresight of holding on to his homestead, and its paying off now as he has one of the finest stands of timber on the Chetco.

The home town boys are coming home thick and fast this month after serving their time in the armed services. Cpl. Davy Crockett arrived home Friday after receiving his discharge at Fort Lewis. He has spent the past year in Korea.

Donald Merritt arrived home Saturday after receiving his discharge. He has served the past few months in Alaska, where he was with a Seabee unit.

Lawrence Wright of Eureka spent the last weekend here visiting relatives and friends. He recently received his discharge from the Navy, and his most recent service was in the Philippines.

Eighty per cent of vehicles involved in fatal traffic accidents in 1953 were traveling straight ahead.
