Family Troubles Are Discussed at Church Meeting

An interesting discussion on Christian family relationships and Church School problems took place at the second Parent-Teachers meeting of St. Timothy's Episcopal church school held last Monday evening in the Vicar's study behind the new church building.

The Rev. John Shideler opened the meeting with a short talk on the aims of modern church school teaching. To teach children religion was not enough, he explained.

What we had to do in our church schools today was to help the child to embody the Christian way of life into its everyday activities. This, to be successful, would necessitate the full participation of the parents in the Christian way of life in order to cooperate fully with the church school teachers in the training of our children. Christian Education, Father Shideler went on to say, was not for children alone, but for the whole parish.

Those present at the meeting had the opportunity of perusing some excellent Christian Education material which was on dis-for the last couple of months. The Myers family remained for a few days visit before returning to Madras.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitener returned to their home in Tulsa, Oklahoma, last week after a short visit at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tamba.

play, much of which will be in use in the Episcopal Church School this fall. During the discussion period delicious cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. Shideler.

Another Parent-Teachers meeting is planned for next Monday evening, August 30, at 8 p. m. in the Vicar's study. All parents interested in Christian Education are welcome to attend.
