ARMY RECRUITER HERE SEPT. 16

Sgt. John G. Van Hoy, recruiting officer for the U. S. Army will be in Brookings at the Post Office at 1 p. m. on Thursday, September 16. At that time he will be glad to meet with any person interested in having questions answered about Army careers.

Sgt. Van Hoy writes he will be very happy to explain the Army's new "Reserved for you" program to all the young men in the area who might be interested.

The new enlistment plan allows a young man to choose and be guaranteed the school of his choice before he enlists.

Reception Honors Former Vicars

A reception was held Tuesday evening at the Chetco Inn in honor of the Rev. Messrs. Paul Wessinger and Robert Greenfield both former Vicars of St. Timothy's Church, Brookings, and other Episcopal Church Missions in Coos and Curry counties.

Father Wessinger resigned from his parish ministry over a year ago to enter the Community of Cowley Fathers, the Society of Saint John the Evangelist, a monastic order of Missionary Priests of the Anglican Communion, of which the Episcopal Church is a part. At the reception, Fr. Wessinger presented to Fr. Shideler a gift of $1000.00 for the Building Fund of St. Timothy's Church.

Fr. Greenfield, who was Vicar of St. Timothy's Church until the arrival of Fr. Shideler last July, will leave shortly for Oxford University, England, where he will devote himself to advanced study in the field of Church History.

Present at the reception, besides Fr. and Mrs. Shideler, and their guests, were Col. and Mrs. Wm. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dubs, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barker and their daughter Karen, Mrs. Martin Thompson and her daughter Dorothy, Mrs. Harriet Baker, Mrs. Wm. Hynes, Mrs. Wm. Phelps, Mr. Arthur Knox, and Mr. Elmer Rapraeger. The arrangements for the reception were in the hands of Mrs. Harriet Baker.

Before leaving for Portland Wednesday morning, Fr. Wessinger assisted by Fr. Greenfield celebrated the Holy Communion before a congregation that filled old St. Timothy's Church. At this Service they were greeted by other members of the congregation that had been unable to attend the reception Tuesday evening because of previous engagements.
