ELK DANCE IS FOR SATURDAY

The first Elk's dance of the Brookings lodge will be held this Saturday at the V. F. W. hall. The dance, which will be informal, is for Elks and their wives.

All future functions will be based on the turnout Saturday night so all members are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served, and there will be a band. Tickets will be sold at the door.

half went to incoming freshmen who graduated last spring from Oregon high schools. The number of scholarships is based on 2 per cent of last year's enrollment.

Addition of the full four-year campus program for elementary teachers has brought 14 new scholarships from Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers. They cover all fees and tuition and are renewable if the student is found worthy.

The OSC Dads club has enlarged its scholarship program and this year is giving six full-tuition and 37 partial tuition awards. OSC Mothers club is sponsoring full-tuition scholarships for eight women and 10 men.

Thirty-nine winners of naval ROTC scholarships have been named. The scholarships cover all fees and tuition plus $50 a month living expenses for four years.

BONNIE SALVAGE BECOMES BRIDE IN HOME RITES

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Salvage on Saturday, September 4 at 11 a. m. their daughter Bonnie Irene became the of Donald C. Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Malone, who also celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary on this day.

E. F. McLain, minister of the Bible Church of Brookings officiated at the double ring ceremony, which took place in front of the pink and white gladolia decked fireplace.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her dress was a two piece blue faile with pink and white accessories and she carried a white Bible with a large pink and white begonia corsage. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rita Salvage was matron of honor, and she also carried a pink and white carnation corsage.

Best man for his brother was Bill Malone. The brides mother chose an aqua taffeta dress with pink and white, while the grooms mother wore a blue flowered silk with pink and white corsage.

Out of town relatives here for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salvage of Cave Junction, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sollinger and children, Howard and Ellen of Central Point, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Salvage and baby son of Lebanon, Ore. Bill Malone, Myrtle Creek, Ore. Richard Salvage of the Dalles, Ore. and Walt Maddex, a guest and close friend of the groom from Myrtle Creek.

A reception followed with a large wedding cake and coffee being served to the friends and relatives of both families.

The list included, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Malone, Jack Malone, Bill Malone, Walt Maddex, Richard Salvage, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cardwell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, rs. Alice Weise, Mrs. Mary Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson, Mrs. Lucille Smith, Clara Thompson, Dot Thompson, E. F. McLain, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salvage, and the parents of the bride and groom. Mrs. Fred Salvage pouded, Gayle Malone serve the wedding cake, and Rita Salvage had charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of the Brookings-Harbor high school with the class of '53, and for the last year has been employed at the Dairy Creem.

The groom is a graduate of Myrtle Creek high school, and has served four years in the U. S. Marines, now being employed at the Brookings Plywood.

The bride wore a biege suit with pink and blue accessories for her going away trip. After they return from a honeymoon trip to Yellowstone Park and Eastern Oregon points they will be at home on Del Norte street in Brookings.
