

Vows Given Again After 25 Years Of Wedded Life

Twenty-five years of marriage were celebrated Tuesday evening at the Baptist Community church when Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Campbell pledged themselves again with the double ring ceremony read by Rev. Walter Sadler. The couple attended by Mr. and Mrs. Art Pierce stood beneath the vine entwined lattice archway with candleabra and baskets of dahlias on each side.

Candles were lighted by Janet Mosier and their son Jimmy, before the processional began with Mrs. Ralph Reed at the organ and Mrs. Lucille Patterson at the piano playing "Bells of St. Mary". The musical program presented to the bride and groom and 75 guests consisted of: "As the Years Go By" sung by Mrs. Harold Young and accompanied by Judy Sadler; "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Mrs. Viola Mosier accompanied by Mrs. Lucille Patterson; "When Your Hair Has Turned To Silver" A trio sung by Mesdames Betty Gorte, Lucille Patterson and Viola Mosier, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Reed; and "My Little Gray Home In The West" sung by Fred Fox accompanied by Mrs. Lucille Patterson. An original poem, "Twenty-Five Long Years Ago" was read by Mrs. Bob Swanson.

Mrs. Campbell was most attractive in a teal blue taffeta dress with silver sequine hat and vel and silver slippers. A shoulder orchid corsage was set off by a large box of silver ribbons. Mrs. Pierces wore navy blue with pink.

The reception table centered by a three tiered cake was presided over by Mesdames Ray Gadberry, Archie Hendricks, C Ed Dempsey and Edith Ackley. Mrs. Lynn Hampton entered the names in the guest book. C. Ed Dempsey presented the gift, a silver candleabra.

Bishop Dagwell is no stranger to Brookings, having visited regularly here several times each year since the organization of St. Timothy's Church, so that visit will be an opportunity to renew many old acquaintances.

St. Timothy's Church welcomes guests and new people in own to services and organizations. Come and get acquainted, and help to celebrate this occasion when our chief minister is visiting us, and the new church is first put to use for divine service.

VICTORY DINNER AT ST. TIMOTHYS

A victory pot-luck supper, to celebrate moving into the new church, is planned by St. Timothy's Episcopal Church for next Monday evening. The new building, although as yet uncompleted, is far enough along to be used, and the supper Monday evening will be an occasion of thanksgiving and rejoicing.

After the dinner a report will be given on the building operations to date, and the condition of the building fund. The building has been advanced to its present stage without incurring any indebtedness, through the support of its Diocese of Oregon, and the generosity and cooperation of local patrons.

When completed the new church will be unique in that the Sanctuary and Nave will be finished in myrtlewood panelling. Its massive timber trusses are another architectural feature that lends beauty and dignity to the interior. The congregation and staff are determined to make new St. Timothy's Church a beautiful church in which to worship the Lord of truth and beauty.
