Rev. Sadler To Be Installed Sunday

Rev. Walter Sadler will be installed at the Baptist Community Church Sunday at the 7:30 evening services. Rev. Sadler started preaching on Sept. 5, 25 years ago in Manitoba Canada. He will be installed by Dr. Elmer C. Adams, executive secretary of the Oregon Baptist Convention. Also in attendance will be Rev. Earl R. Berg, field secretary of the group.

The happiness of your life depends upon the quality of your thoughts, therefore guard accordingly.—Marcus Antonious.

King And Queen To Be Crowned At Flying High

The King and Queen contest, held in conjunction with the Lion's club Flying High show is attracting a lot of attention in Brookings.

The King and Queen, youngsters from 1 to 6, will be crowned Friday at the high school auditorium during the play production. Pictures of the children are up, all over Brookings and Harbor, and votes are 1 cent each.

Results each day will be posted in the window next to Gould's and the Theater. All the jars will be picked up by 6 p. m. Friday.

Leading so far in the Queen contest is Starla Coat, Eileen Nelson, Dianna Rausch, and Pamela Jean Young. Leading in the King contest are Walter Sanders, Bobby Thompson, Mike Stacey, and Scott Smith.

Harbor Brothers Marry Sisters

A double wedding of interest to this community was when Dolores M. Sporrer and Lee J. Smith and Darlene K. Sporrer and Melvin F. Smith were united in holy wedlock at the St. Francis Catholic Church in Bend, Oregon on September 25 at 11 o'clock in the morning.

A large reception followed the ceremony at the Gilchrist Club in Gilchrist, Oregon at 2:30 P. M.

The boys are the sons of Mrs. Anabel Smith of Harbor and the girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sporrer of Chemult, Oregon. One unusual aspect was that the boys are brothers and the girls are sisters.

The boys have resided here for quite some time. Lee having attended the local schools.
