Danish Contractor To Make Home Here

Jens Werner, originally from Denmark, has arrived to make his home in Brookings, with his wife. Werner is masonry and stone contractor. He was a general contractor in Denmark for 12 years before coming to Los Angeles in 1948. He did masonry contracting there for four years.

Werner met Jack Gilmore, a Winchuck Rd. rancher in Santa Monica and did a stone job for him. He expects to start a business here and settle down.

To know the laws of God in nature and revelation, and then to fashion the affections and will into harmony with those laws—this is education.—Sylvester Scovel.

Education is a possession which cannot be taken away from man. —Alexander Pope.
