Salvation was said to be attainable not through death, but through daily individual character redemption in a Lesson-Sermon devoted to the subject "Probation after Death," to be read in all Christian Science churches Oct. 24.
"Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tired, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him" (James 1:12) is the Golden Text. Congregations are to be told in a citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 291), "We know that all will be changed in the twinkling of an eye, when the last trump shall sound; but this last call for wisdom cannot come till mortals have already yielded to each lesser call in the growth of Christian character. Mortals need not fancy that belief in the experience of death will awaken them to glorified being. Universal salvation rests on progression and probation, and is unattainable without them."

Two tables of bridge were played at the home of Mrs. Norris Kemp, Monday night. Mrs. Charles Stirling was awarded high, and Mrs. Glen Rogers, low. Mr. Kemp entertained the ladies at the piano after the card game.

Mrs. Harold Jochens spent the week end in Medford, visiting friends.

"7" WON'T WORK here's why

- ★ Interferes with Oregon's program to conserve and maintain the salmon resource.
- ★ Would idle more than 1800 fishermen and $11,680,000 equipment.
- ★ Closes every Oregon coastal port south of Astoria to commercial salmon fishermen.
- ★ Grabs for a few a resource that belongs to all the people of Oregon.
