

Brookings-Harbor Pilot Chamber Of Commerce
THURSDAY, OCT. 28, 1954

Meets Thursday

DO YOU DANCE?

Are you in the mood to waltz around Willie? This community will be jumping Saturday night, with three dances scheduled for that evening.

The Elks club is having an informal blue jean dance at the VFW hall.

The Wranglers are having a square dance this Saturday at the Odd Fellows Hall.

The Cliff House is having their annual Hallowe'en party Saturday, and are offering a $50 prize to the best costume.

The Brookings Chamber of Commerce will hold their first fall meeting tonight, Thursday, at the VFW hall beginning at 7 p. m. The affair will be a dinner meeting, with William Tugman, editor of the Eugene Register Guard scheduled to speak. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Neither piety, virtue, nor liberty can long flourish in a community where the education of youth is neglected—Peter Cooper.
