

Betas Give Party For Crescent City

The Beta Iota chapter of Beta Sigma Phi gave a Mad-Hatter's party for the Crescent City chapter of this world-wide organization the evening of October 19, at the Rod and Gun Club hall.

Each girl arrived wearing her own millinery creation, and the final array of headgear was both ingenious and startling. After parading the hall, the members heard the judges decision, awarding the prizes for originality to two of the guests and one Brookings member, Elinor Smith.

This was the first time the two sister chapters have had an official get-together, and along with charades and general fun, the members took advantage of this opportunity to compare notes on their various Beta Sigma Phi activities.

The hall was decorated with great originality, as the interior of a millinery shop, with models of every conceivable kind of hat covering the walls. The hat motif was continued in the decoration of the small tables placed around the room, at which the Betas were served, hot rolls and coffee.

The two chapters greatly enjoyed this get-acquainted party, and plan to hold many future conferences for a stimulating exchange of ideas.

BETAS HAVE NEW SPONSOR

Mrs. Alice Putnam of Harbor has accepted the invitation of the Beta Iota chapter of Beta Sigma Phi to become their new sponsor. This position was formerly held by Mrs. Harvey Foster, who was unable to continue in this role this year.

As sponsor, Mrs. Putnam is an honorary member of the Beta Iota chapter, and will be concerned with guiding the chapter's social committee in the planning of events for the year, as well as helping to maintain within the chapter the ideals of Beta Sigma Phi.

To Give Two Dolls Away at Christmas

Beta Sigma Phi will award two Saucy Walker dolls, complete with hand-sewn wardrobes, in a drawing to be held shortly before Christmas.

As a result of the popularity of last year's drawing, when over 800 tickets were sold, the Betas have decided to double this year's fun and give two children a merrier Christmas. The clothes for the beautiful doll will all be hand-made by Beta members.

and packed into a cosmopolitan wardrobe trunk. Last year's winner was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Botzek.

The proceeds from the drawing were used last year to help sponsor high-school Sunday afternoon bowling teams. This year, most of the money will be converted into furniture and books for the children's room of the new Brookings Library.

ings Library.
