WINCHUCK WOMENS CLUB MET THURSDAY

The October meeting of the Winchuck Womens club was held at the home of Mrs. L. W. Bowlin Thursday afternoon with a good turnout of members. Visitors for the meeting were Betty Kaiser and Elizabeth Wimberly. It was planned to bring ideas for quick Christmas gifts to the November meeting. After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed with the hostess serving pumpkin pie with home made ice cream for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Arzner and Mr. Arzner's father, Joe Arzner arrived from Lakeview last week. Grandpa Joe plans to remain here all winter at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Laverne Hewitt, but Mr. and Mrs. Arzner may have to return to Lakeview in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dubs made a trip to Portland recently to visit their daughter, Jendy, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hanscam Sr., returned home Saturday after being in Portland for three weeks during which time Mrs. Hanscam underwent an operation on her eyes at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Mr. Hanscam also had a physical checkup at the Portland Clinic. Before leaving for home they went in to see Mrs. Martha Harbin who is also a patient at the same Hospital and she wanted to be remembered to all her friends, but could not say when she would be home.

Deputy sheriff Wesley Smith made the long trek to Marial by himself this week to take the ballot boxes and supplies in to that eastern Curry county precinct. He left Monday and planned to return on Wednesday, making the trip by Jeep.

Mrs. Will Tolman spent the weekend here from her home in Bandon, and was joined on Monday by Mr. Tolman. They both voted on Tuesday in the Chetco Precinct as this is their official residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ray and son Tommy, moved into their new home on the Hoffeldt tract over the weekend. This is the first of the homes that Mr. and Mrs. Hoffeldt are contemplating building on the tract which they have named "Crestline".

The annual election of officers for Chetco Grange will be held at the meeting November 5th which is being preceded by a pot luck dinner at 6:30.

Mrs. Ruth Bathiany returned home the latter part of the week from a two weeks visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Craford in Tulalake, Calif.

Several new homes have been built recently in the Louis Stoller neighborhood, two of them on acreages sold by the Stollers. Mr. and Mrs. William DeHaas and Mr.

SCHOOL NEWS

Mrs. Pauline Tygert has been taking census for school district 17C to include all individuals between the ages of 4 and 20. If you have children in this age group who are not in school, and Mrs. Lester Rauch are building homes on property they purchased from the Stollers. In the same neighborhood, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams, who sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holms of Brookings have built themselves another house to live in, and Ernest Foster has a new home under construction. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster have changed the looks of their house by the addition of some picture windows and a fireplace plus a garage and workshop added on at the rear.

and Mrs. Tygert has not contacted you, please call the school office, Brookings 2301.

The next National Assembly program at the high school will be scheduled for November 17 at 9 a. m., with Flemming Oren and his Marimba as the scheduled performer. The high school has a schedule of 7 programs during the year. Students are charged 10c, if they have a student body ticket; otherwise 25c.
