VFW Party Saturday

Over a hundred veterans and their kin sat down to a potluck supper Saturday night, despite the heavy weather. There was more than enough for all and others dropped in, later in the evening.

The crowd was very grateful to Henry Kerr for bringing up his movie projector for the showing of a reel taken at the VFW National Home for veterans' widows and orphans, at Eaton Rapids, Mich.

Following this showing the folks spent an evening at games or dancing to the music supplied by Mrs. Alice Putnam's electric organ.

There have been several requests for a similar party after the holidays

PLAN POT LUCK

There will be a Thanksgiving pot-luck at the Baptist Community church on Tuesday evening, Nov. 23, at 6:30 with a service following. The guest speaker will be the Rev. LeRoy G. Fraser, pastor of First Baptist Church, Grants Pass. All members and friends are invited.

THE PLAQUE FOR THE NEW DON CAMERON BRIDGE is shown above. It will be installed at the formal dedication on Monday, when the County Court, along with several Forest Service officials will be on the scene on the North Fork of the Chetco River
