

McCOURT - MONTGOMERY RITES ARE HELD HERE ON SATURDAY

Bud McCourt took Mary Montgomery as his bride in a candle-light ceremony Saturday evening at the Baptist Community Church in Brookings. The services were conducted by the Rev. Walter Sadler.

Miss Montgomery's father gave the bride away in the rites.

The bride was dressed beautifully in a nylon net over satin, with a full length train. She had a bouquet of pink rose buds.

Attending the couple at the wedding were the maid of honor, a sister, Miss Mattie Keffer, Harbor. Two candle lighters, Glenda Keffer, a niece of the bride, and Betty Thompson, a flower girl, Pamela Hanscam, ring bearer, Dale Niemie, and ushers Ray Pisarek and Joe Murphy.

A brother of the bridegroom, Thomas McCourt, served as the best man in the ceremony.

The candle lighters wore pale endar and blue, and carried can-lavendar and blue net, over laves with streamers, of the same colors of the dresses, and they wore white carnations.

The flower girl wore pink over pink taffeta. The ring bearer wore dark trousers, and a white coat, carrying the ring on a white satin pillow.

A pale lavender net over satin, stephantes, and pink carnations ensemble was the attire of the maid of honor, Miss Keffer.

Mrs. Alice Putnam played the organ, while Mrs. Ray Pisarek sang "Because" and "Oh Promise Me."

The altar was attractively decorated with sprayed greenery.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCourt of Couer D alene, Idaho.

The couple went south to an unknown destination, following the ceremony, and returned the latter part of the week. They will be at home in Harbor.

The bride came here three years ago from Engene's Sacred Heart Hospital from where she graduated to work for Dr. Ronniger. The groom is parts manager at the Fox Bros. Trucking firm.

Out of town guests were in attendance at a filled church. They included; Mrs. A. N. Smalley, Los Angeles; Marys brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Montgomery, and daughter Vickie from Eugene; Miss Joyce Carpenter, of Cottage Grove.

BANNANA BELT?

Curry County is quite a "Ban-nana belt." Reports from Lang-lois are that Clifford and Florence Sydman grow lemons, oranges and tangerines, mostly in their hot house. D. B. Smithers of Agness, has a grapefruit tree, and he also has a lemon tree bearing and also has an orange tree.

and Prudence McCourt, from Couer D alene, and also three brothers of the groom. Mrs. Walt Anderson, of Brookings furnished the brides cake, and a serve that is over 100 years old, coming from Germany.

A reception for relatives and members of the wedding party was held at the Skopec home. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the couple

Crescent City Begins Comic Book Clean-up

A joint PTA meeting in Crescent City last week received a pledge of cooperation from the local distributing agency on cleaning up the comic book situation in that city. Jack Routh, representing the local distributing agency was the guest speaker at the joint meeting, and told the group that the association code is aimed at the prevention of distribution of comic books of objectionable nature, but that local groups must be behind the association with continuing effort

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Going—Going—
But Not Gone!

Saturday they got set to auction off "Sis" Brown's house for non-payment of taxes. Buck Stone was the auctioneer. Everybody who came to the auction knew that "Sis" is a war widow.

When Buck began the bidding he said, "Anybody can bid. Just remember "Sis" and three nice kids live here. Now who's going to start the bidding?"

There was silence. "Sis," standing in back, got the point. She reached into her purse for just about all the money she had in the world. "I'll bid $75," she said.

"Sold," bellowed Buck and "Sis" had her home back.

From where I sit, Buck Stone used a helping hand instead of a gavel. It was real neighborliness. You know, even in something as small as respecting another's choice of beverage, a person can be neighborly. You might like buttermilk. I'm "sold" on a temperate glass of beer. And I can't "buy" anyone's telling me I'm wrong.
