

Lutheran Circle Plans Dec. 20 Meet

The Constitution and by laws were formally accepted.

A Committee was appointed to decide whether to give a package to some needy family or send a care package.

Add Furniture To VFW Building

Forty more folding chairs have been added to the furniture at the VFW hall, making a total of 100 all purchased by the ladies with money earned at their annual rummage sales. They have some funds left over and together with other money pledged by the post, will start buying folding tables. A ruling of the groups is that none of their equipment may be taken from the building.

When the owners moved in some years ago, all the furniture were plants to sit on and make-shift tables of boards. Since then, two electric ranges, a hot water heater, table service for 100, and better heating equipment has been acquired. Asbestos-gypsum shakes enough to cover the entire outside walls have been bought, are now being put on, the kitchen is in process of being remodeled, and inside painting is planned.

As soon as the powers-that-be get around to it, better parking facilities will be provided and then the veterans will go ahead with their long delayed retaining walls and approaches.

The structure is much appreciated, is very busy, and operated much on the order of a non-profit Community Hall.

invited. Each one is to bring a gift not exceeding one dollar. The date is Monday, December 20th, at 7:30 p. m.

Library Building Ready for Inside Work

Carpenters have installed all the remaining outside doors and windows in the new library building and it is now ready for interior work.

Ben Jones will now hang and connect the electric heaters and make available temporary lighting.

The biggest problem remaining is hooking the facility up to a sewer system.

The board, at its last meeting, decided to have its annual fiesta in the new building in the latter part of February.

It has been found that many people do not even know where the building is, turn left on Redwood Street, one block East of The Catholic Church.
