FARM CENSUS COMPLETED IN THIS AREA
 Mrs. Elsie Reynolds, who took the farm census in this area, has completed the work required and sent her reports in to Corvallis. Mrs. Reynolds, who also took the general census in 1950, thinks the growth of the area south of the Chetco River to the California state line very remarkable. The 1950 census showed that 503 people lived in that area at that time. There are now 421 houses in the same area, and if one averages the families at 4 persons per house, the population is now approximately 1684.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Oliver left Sunday for Portland where they will spend the holidays at home of their daughter and son-in-law, the McCluskeys.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Smith made a brief stop in Harbor Saturday afternoon when on their way to Gold Beach to spend the night before returning to their home in Ashland. Mrs. Smith who was the County School Superintendent a few years ago, is now an instructor at Southern Oregon College at Ashland.

W. W. Smith left Monday for Lakeview where he planned to spend a day before continuing on to Everett, Washington. He will spend Christmas at the home of his daughters. He plans to return home before the first of the year.

Mrs. Jack Gilmore left Tuesday for San Francisco where she will spend Christmas with her son, then she will continue on to Santa Monica for the rest of the winter.

Raymond Reekman is spending the holidays at the home of his mother, Mrs. Milton Foster, having come from Klamath Falls Monday where he is attending Oregon Technical Institute.
