

P. T. A. TO MEET

The regular P. T. A. meeting will be held at the high school gym, on Thursday, (Tonight), March 3rd, beginning at 8 p.m. The Scouts and 4-H clubs will put on the program. All parents are urged to attend.

HELLO WORLD

Two girls, and a boy were born last week to area couples; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sandberg had a baby girl, born Feb. 25. Mr. and Mrs. Wern Wintersteen had a baby girl, born on Feb. 27, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCauley had a boy, born on March 1. Dr. Paul Ronniger was in attendance.

-CAPITAL PARADE-

LEGISLATIVE PARAGRAPHS

Senate President and Mrs. Elmo F. Smith were hosts to the Senators, their wives, Senate attaches and the press at a reception and buffet in the Gold Room of the Marion Hotel Wednesday.

Mrs. Dean H. Walker was the guest of Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Douglas McKay at the Interior diners room last week. Mrs. Walker has been in New York for TV educational conferences.

The bi-annual sausage and sauerkraut dinner at Mt. Angel Thursday was even better than the last, which was better than the last. This has been going on for two decades with a full attendance of the Legislative and press.

Legislators and local officials for an annual session February 24, 1955, at the Marion Hotel, Legislative and the Mayor of the City of Salem.

The committee was passed to the House and the House welcoming to Oregon, Abba Eban, the Israeli ambassador. Mr. Eban will address the Legislature Friday morning, February 25. Friday evening he will be the guest of honor at the Israel Bond dinner at the Multnomah Hotel in Portland.

Larry Smyth, press agent and political messenger boy for Sect. of the Interior Douglas McKay, was off a plane—on again in 50 minutes at Salem one day last week. He had a hurried half hour at the Capitol with Gov. Patterson and a few legislative committeemen. Also a quick chat with newsmen. Smyth is a former political writer of the Oregon Journal and has covered several sessions of the Oregon Legislature.

Herbert Hoover has been invited by unanimous vote of the Oregon Legislature to spend his 71st birthday at his boyhood home at Newberg, Oregon. The former president's birthday is August 10 when the restored Herbert Hoover National Historical Park will be dedicated. His uncle, Dr. J. M. Muthorn, with whom the president resided Hoover lived, moved to Newberg, Oregon, in 1921. Hoover moved to Salem. An effort to restore the Herbert Hoover home in Salem has been discussed. Burt Brown Barker, who has accomplished much in preserving Oregon shrines, led the movement in securing, refurbishing the Herbert Hoover Home at Newberg.

LINE OF THE WEEK

In the legislative session the Democrats had the majority control of the 1955 legislature in the bag and didn't know it.

When the controlling Republicans began legislation that would take from the voters the right to elect certain state officials and give the governor the power to appoint them—that was the golden hour of silence for the Bourbons. Instead they attempted to retaliate by playing ant-over-tossing in bills to make certain appointive officials elect-
