HARBOR COUPLE MARRIED SUNDAY

In a simple but impressive ceremony at their new home on Pedrioli Drive, Mrs. Bernadine Steele and Franklin Kelley were united in marriage by the Rev. Henry M. Ostermeier Saturday afternoon at two-thirty. Mrs. Bertha Beers was her sister's matron of honor and Lyle Dill was best man for his cousin. There were only members of the family and close friend present for the occasion. Following the ceremony, refreshments were served, with the newly married couple cutting the first piece of the wedding cake.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Kelley are well known in this area. Mrs. Kelley, a native Harbortite, has been teaching in the local schools for several years. She is a member of the Grange, Rebekahs, Teachers Association and VFW Auxiliary and takes an active part in their work. Mr. Kelley moved here from Grand Rapids, Michigan about two years ago and is a member of the Carpenters Union, the Grange and the Veterans of the Foreign Wars.

After a weeks trip to San Francisco, Mr and Mrs. Kelley will be at their home on Pedrioli Drive which Mr. Kelley has built in the past few months.
