

Harbor News

Mr. and Mrs. Sy Payne had quite a bit of excitement around their place in the Upper Chetco country Monday evening. A bear killed some of their sheep, and other predators, two legged ones this time, were nearly caught red handed after killing a calf and starting to skin it. A neighbor, Steve Cate, scared the cattle thieves away before they could finish their work. The Upper Chetco residents also enjoyed (?) several inches of wet, sticky snow during the last storm, but it has almost disappeared by now. Who says that life on the Chetco is tame?

Thirty members of the Chetco Grange traveled to Ophir Friday night when the ladies degree team put on the 3rd and 4th degrees for eight candidates of the Ophir Grange. Those making the visitation were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carson, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Weigel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelby, Mr.

and Mrs. A. Sjostrom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Birger Dahlstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zumpfe, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ravick, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Tolman, Mr. and Mrs. William Foster, Mrs. Ruby Harvey, Mrs. Polly Clendenin, Mrs. Jessie Judkins, Mrs. Beulah Keiser, Mrs. Bertha Beers, Mrs. Emma Waldien, Mrs. Wilda Carson and Mrs. Hulda Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Struedling visit to Los Altos, San Francisco and Escalon. They consulted an architect on plans for the new home they are going to build on their property near Gilbert Creek, a short distance south of the California line. They also visited with Mrs. Struedling's brother, Robert Ladd and his family while gone.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tworek and children spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Tworek's parents Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Masset. The Tworeks returned to their home in Arcata on Sunday. M. D. Chambers received word

EXTENSION SERVICE TO MEET

The Home Extension Service will meet Monday May 2, at 10 a.m. in the Grange Hall. Those attending are asked to bring a sack lunch. The topic is to be on hooked rugs. For information call Bernice Hewitt, 3651.

Word has been received here of the death of her brother in Logan, Iowa Monday evening after a long illness.

Word has been received here that A. L. Hall, proprietor of the Falls Cabins above the Harbor store, underwent a serious operation Thursday at Richmond, and is doing as well as can be expected. Mr. and Mrs. Hall have been in Richmond for several months for medical treatments.

Mrs. Kay Sandstrom has closed her beauty shop for repairs and redecoration, a job she has planned for some time.

Low Farnham returned to his home in Grants Pass Friday after visiting at the home of his sister Mrs. Fred Gardner for a few days.

Four Student Plays

Are Set For May 13

Four students have been chosen to direct one-act plays to be presented by the high school dramatic club in their third annual spring drama Festival.

The plays and their directors are as follows: "Murder Is Fun" directed by Jo Anne Pettigrew; "Sunday's Child" directed by Jo Ann Darger; "Its Cold In Their Thar Hills" directed by Peggy Gran; and Virginia Akers is directing "Five For Bad Luck".

The plays will be held May 13 in the new high school gym.

DONATE MONEY TO STREET FUND

The following have contributed to the "Gravel Fund" since the last report, according to Pop Reed, city work superintendent. The money brought the total donated to $92.00, still shy of the goal of $1,500 by $580. The money will be used to pay for the gravel put on the city streets in January. Reed says that many have reported that they were going to send in a small check, and says that the goal would be easy to reach if each one would make a small donation.

GRANGE TO HAVE MOTHER'S DAY DINNER

The men of the Grange are planning to give a Mothers Day dinner at the Grange Hall on May 14th. While they say it will be a week late for the day itself, the dinner will be in honor of Mothers Day and will be served from six to eight in the evening. The committee in charge is Milton Foster, Robert Chambers and H. J. Weigel.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall returned Monday from Kingsley, Iowa. They had been visiting Iowa since December 19, and visiting Minnesota, S. Dak. relatives. The Hall brought their grandson, Don Hall, back with them. Don is in the Marines. He is going from here to 29 Palms Marine base.

LIONS AUXILIARY NOMINATE OFFICERS

The Brookings - Harbor Lions Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Joe Kanick Monday, April 26, and nominated the following officers: President, Mrs. Joe Kanick; vice president, Mrs. Gordon Olsen; secretary, Mrs. Bill Thompson; treasurer, Mrs. Bill Houvila; Lion trainer, Mrs. Al Mincer; directors, Mrs. Al Phillips, Mrs. Geo. Shipley and Mrs. Earl Coats.

The next meeting is at the home of Mrs. Ralph (Pop) Reed, on Monday, May 23 at 8 p.m. where the election of officers will take place. Also the group will elect delegates to the Convention in Pendleton.

It was voted to help a needy family with donations of food, and to buy a pair of shoes for one of the children.

Mrs. Al Mincer gave an enlightening talk on jewelry, and showed beautiful illustrations.

The meeting ended with the Kanicks girl's serving a delicious frozen desert with hot rolls and coffee.

FORMER HARBOR SCHOOL TEACHER PASSES AWAY

A former Winchuck and Harbor school teacher passed away recently in Portland. She was Ruby Blake Costello Youngson, who was born in Smith River in 1873. Mrs. Youngson received an education in Santa Cruz, Calif., returning here to serve as a school teacher at both the Winchuck and Harbor school.

She was married to Fredrick H. Blake in 1895, and they owned the Blake ranch, which is now known as Pedrioli Bros. holdings.

In 1908 they moved to Portland, where Mr. Blake went into business. After Mr. Blake's death Mrs. Blake was married to Dr. Wm. W. Youngson, past of Portland Rose City Methodist Church.

She is survived by her husband also three sons, Harrison, Seth B. and Edward of Twin Falls, Idaho and a daughter Dorothy Bourne of Coos Bay.
