Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith left Wednesday for Portland and Chehalis, Washington on a business trip. They plan to return by Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neilson Jr. of Grants Pass spent Tuesday in Brookings. Mr. Neilson is the manager of the U.S. National Bank there and came to attend the bank's grand opening here.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Moore had as guests, Mrs. Moore's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bass of San Leandro, Calif. They arrived a week ago Sunday after just returning from South America, and left Thursday for Korea.

Mrs. Robert Collier entertained her bridge club at her home Monday evening. Ruth Bathiany won high and Mrs. Dorothy Kemp low.

Mrs. Glen Weeks mother, Mrs. Marvel Knickerbocker, has returned to Ontario, Oregon after spending two months here.

Fred and Lloyd Fox spent the week in Portland on business. They left Monday and returned Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson attended the funeral of Andrew Weber in Roseburg on Monday. He was the business partner of Mrs. Peterson's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and family spent the week end in Medford to be with Mrs. Brown's mother on Mother's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Chapman spent the weekend in Grants Pass and Medford, staying over night at the home of Mrs. Chapman's sister, Mrs. Gene Reiling.

VFW AUXILIARY PRESIDENT VISITS

Mrs. Frieda Lawrence of Medford, President of District No. 7, was a visitor at the meeting of Curry County Auxiliary No. 966 last Wednesday evening. She had come to make final arrangements for the District Meeting here next Sunday, May 15th.

Final plans were made for the dinner to be held that day at noon with Bertha Vines as chairman. Around 150 persons are expected for the meeting, the District including Medford, Grants Pass, Ashland, Shady Cove, Camp White and Rogue River, Cave Junction and Brookings.

During the social and refreshment hour following the meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelley were presented with a wedding gift from the Post and Auxiliary.

The election of officers will be held at the next meeting, May 20, also delegates at the Encampment in July at Ocean Lake.

HARBOR NEWS

Remember that delayed Mothers Day Dinner takes place on by the men of the Grange this Saturday from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Grange Hall. They are putting out a good ham feed for $1.25 for adults and 75c for children, and from the dinner they put on last year. It is going to be good eating.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelley were the honored guests at a community party at the Grange Hall on April 27th with the Grange as the sponsoring group. An evening of dancing and visiting was enjoyed by everyone with refreshments of coffee and cake served late in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley were presented a gift from the Grange.

Mrs. Ora Bagley drove to Laytonville Saturday to spend the weekend with her brother, Ernest Foster, he Bagleys are now making their home in Laytonville where Mr. Bagley is working.

The building activity has hit Harbor also with a 30 by 100 foot building being built by the Hancock brothers for a combined store-house and repair shop. The building is going up against the hill south of the Hanscom Shopping Center.

Mrs. Leslie Woodruff and her mother-in-law Alan Woodruff returned Thursday from southern California where they visited relatives and took care of business matters. They were gone three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Smith drove to Richmond last week where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Smith's brother, A. L. Hall. A 21 day rest booklet arrived home Friday for a visit after being stationed with the Air Force for the last three years in Germany and France. After his leave is up he is to report for duty at Yuma, Arizona. He is commonly being mistaken for his identical twin brother Raymond, but this is a unusual case to have been mistaken for their lives. Last weekend his older brother Correll drove over from Ashland to visit with him and to spend Mothers Day here.

Mrs. J. V. Pecklin returned home during the weekend from Portland where she underwent a major operation several weeks ago.

Stop hating those snails and slugs!

Instead, kill 'em with BUG-GETA. Kill them before they eat your plants. Simply scatter where ever snails and slugs hide. A few minutes—a few handfuls per week will protect your entire garden. Economical too!
