

Telephone Men Have Training

Seven West Coast Telephone Company employees in the Marshfield District, who recently completed the equivalent of four years apprentice telephone training, will be awarded Journeyman's certificates at the graduation banquet on June 8th, in North Bend.

Frank Houston, Lineman, Coquille; Walter Hobbs, Fieldman, Engineering Office, Coos Bay; Dale Rongey, Installer-repairman, Coos Bay; Robert Coleman, Equipmentman, Coos Bay; James Desinger, Equipmentman, Coos Bay; Phillip Barnett, Apprentice Cable Splicer, Coos Bay; and Don Terry, Lineman, Coos Bay. Coos Bay will receive their graduation certificates from Mr. Byron McBride, Business Representative, I.B.E.W., Local 125.

Special guests at the banquet, who have been largely responsible for the success of the apprenticeship training program, are Myron Johnson, Federal Bureau of Labor of Medford, A. C. Hogan, State Director of Apprenticeship, of Portland, and Maurice Romig, Adult Educational Coordinator, School District 9-C. Other special guests are Darwin Belleisle, Manager of the Coos Bay Times and Ulla Bauers, Executive Editor, Coos Bay Times.

Representing the West Coast Telephone Company will be Norman Doving, and Roy Walter, who have instructed previous apprentice classes, and G. E. Krieger, L. Gray Beck, J. T. Smith and Geo. McBride.

The apprenticeship training program is jointly sponsored by Local 125, I.B.E.W., and the West Coast Telephone Company, in cooperation with Oregon State and Federal labor, apprenticeship and educational agencies. It promotes high standards of workmanship as well as technical training. Instruction includes 30 varied courses, including telephone installation, equipment design, drafting, pole and line construction and mathematics.

The joint apprenticeship committee, which arranges the telephone courses includes John Earl, Darrell Shannon, Lloyd Hedden, Winston Shattuck, Elmer Dulque, Norman Doving, C. E. Thompson and Marvin Blenz.

Mr. L. Gray Beck, Chief Engineer from Everett, Washington, will be principal speaker at the banquet.

Mr. George McBride, District Manager, will act as toastmaster.

Other Marshfield District employees who have completed at least one year's apprentice training and will receive special attendance certificates are, Robert Ewenson, Apprentice Lineman, Coos Bay; James Myers, Apprentice Lineman, Coos Bay; Edwin Soland, Apprentice Cable Splicer, Coos Bay and Robert Berge, Apprentice Testboardman, Crescent City. Maurice Romig will award the attendance certificates.

RAISE $60 FOR P.T.A.

The piece of paper that Behee's Dance Band held recently amounted to about $60. The amount was turned over to the P.T.A. which sponsored the dance, and will help pay the 4-H scholarship that the P.T.A. is sponsoring.

PAPER DOLLY

Pretty dancer Yvonne Martin does a neat balancing trick with this stack of paper boxes which should qualify her for the 1955 Paper Doll title. Yvonne was chosen to introduce the new family-use package of Lockerap, the frozen food wrap used for storing foods in home freezers. Lockerap is made of sturdy, sanitary white paper, waxed on one side to provide dependable protection for all kinds of foods in home freezer units. The new cutter box has a serrated edge for easy, convenient handling and is available at food stores and locker plants throughout the West.

ONE IN THOUSANDS—Last year 155,000 fires roared through America's forests. They destroyed recreational areas, timber, watersheds, wildlife. What caused these fires? 9 out of 10 were caused by carelessness . . . pure and simple. Won't you be careful this year? Extra careful? Remember—only you can prevent forest fires. "IRONED OUT"

EVANSTON, ILL.—It's not hard to tell which gal got her problems safely "ironed out." Both models wore suits made of a heat sensitive synthetic fabric. The unfortunate lass on the left had her suit pressed by an old-fashioned method and it just shrank away from her. She discovered, too late, that miracle fabrics are heat sensitive and must be finished with a pressing technique as new as the synthetics themselves!

Out of a barrel and into a smoothly finished suit is the smiling model on the right. Her synthetic suit was finished on a press equipped with the new Freeman Fabric-Safe Doubleplate, the only press plate capable of finishing all synthetic fabrics safely and beautifully.

This new pressplate developed by The David A. Freeman Co. here "now" makes it possible for the drycleaners of America to press man-made fibers without leaving steam marks, shine or ugly crinkles.

The new Fabric-Safe Doubleplate not only eliminates the need for "barrels" but also spells the end of "Unserviceable" garments.

OREGON MOTELS SET 1955 CONVENTION

The Oregon Motor Court Association, representing the motels, trailer parks and resorts of Oregon, will hold its Eleventh Annual Convention at Roseburg, Oregon, November 6-7-8, 1955. High interest among members in state and national road problems and legislative matters in recent months indicates a record attendance of more than 200 delegates.

Don Coon, past president of OMCA and owner of Don-Mar Motel, Corvallis, is state convention chairman. The committee is discussing many program innovations and an enlarged convention merchandise mart, according to State President Keith Cobo, Klamath Falls.

The Baptist Community Church vacation Bible School will have their closing exercises this Saturday.

Sidney M. Luce is now resting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Laura Egoscue, at Forest Grove, to return in about a month for a major operation at the Veterans Hospital in Portland, where he has been a patient. Mrs. Egoscue writes that she expects to come to Brookings soon, to look after her brother's property.

J. F. Fowler Named DFPA
Director of Promotion

Appointment of James F. Fowler, managing director of the Fir Doo Institute here, to the newly created position of Director of Promotion for Douglas Fir Plywood Association, was announced today by W. E. Difford, managing director of the plywood's industry trade group.

Fowler, former Associated Press and United Press correspondent, will head up an expanded promotion effort undertaken this year by the trade promotion group on behalf of western plywood manufacturers.
