Announce Engagement of Sandra Palmer

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Palmer of Grants Pass announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Elaine to Cpl. Virgil Glenn Orton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Iris Orton of Brookings. A fall wedding is planned.

Miss Palmer, a June graduate of the University of Oregon, has accepted a teaching position in the Senior High School of Eureka, California.

Cpl. Orton, now stationed at Fort MacArthur, California, plans to attend Humboldt State College this fall.

Mrs. Percy Hanks returned from Portland Monday evening. Patti Jo Gragg is in Grants Pass visiting her sister, Mrs. Dale Smith this week.

Mr. Everett Jaggers was called to Portland this week for a check up.

DONATE BLOOD

Mrs. Lloyd Gates and Mrs. Betty Smyth donated a pint of blood Wednesday morning at 6:30 a.m. to Letha Hall, who delivered a baby boy by Caesarian Section Wednesday. The two were part of the Brookings Walking Blood Bank.

Roy E. Lytle, who lived in Brookings for several years returned on the Wednesday morning bus from the family home in the bay area. He plans to stay about a week, after which his wife, Maybelle will be up.

PLAN CANDLELIGHT ARCHERY SHOOT

The Pelican Bay Bowmen will have an archery tournament this Saturday and Sunday, in back of Fort Dick. All local bowmen, interested either as a spectator or as a participant are asked to attend.

The Sunday shoot will be at 10:00 a.m. with a registration fee of fifty cents. On Saturday, at dusk a candlelight shoot will be held on the same grounds.

Report Wedding of Ruth Cucksee

Report Wedding of Ruth Cucksee

Ruth Carpenter Cucksee was married to Florian L. Gerard recently by the Rev. Paul Roper in Alderwood Manor, Washington.

Witnesses were Mildred Gerard, the groom's sister-in-law, and Mrs. Ellen Fisher, an intimate friend of the bride. The couple, after spending some time with the groom's mother, Mrs. J. Thornton in Bellingham, Washington, ventured on as far as Vancouver, Canada besides making other various stops with friends and acquaintances along the trip, before returning to Gold Beach after a two weeks honeymoon trip.

The Rev. Paul Roper is quite well known to many Brookings folks, since his first pastorate started here in the Brookings Community Church some years ago. The first couple that he united in wedlock was the bride's mother, Mrs. Rose Carpenter and Judson L. Bell, in the early part of 1936.

Mrs. Ellen Fisher is also well known here as a former resident in and around Brookings for many years. Her present address is Mrs. David Fisher, Box 176, Poulsbo, Washington.

After the return of the bride and groom, the Ladies Auxiliary of the V.F.W., of Gold Beach gave them a nice wedding shower.

RAINBOW GIRLS PLAN INITIATION

All the Rainbow girls are asked to remember the meeting on Monday, June 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the I.O.O.F. Hall. All new members will be initiated at that time. The meeting will be formal.
