

Harbor News

Mr. and Mrs. Will Tolman have moved back to Harbor to make their home after living in Bandon for the last three years where they took care of Joe Zumpfe's cranberry bog for him.

Mrs. Helen Reiling drove over from Grants Pass Tuesday morning to leave her children at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne. She continued on to Ocean Lake to attend the Department Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars which is being held there this week. Mrs. Clara Bowlin, president-elect of the local VFW Auxiliary accompanied her to the Encampment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fen Hart of Pacoima, California are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Skopec. They own the former Mark Wood property between the Post Office and the river.

Mr. and Mrs. LeDoy Sukowaty of St. Nazianz, Wisconsin stopped to visit their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morris last week while on their honeymoon. They will also visit another uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hart Sukowaty at Henderson, Nevada on their way home.

Mrs. Ruth Bathiany returned home the latter part of the week after being gone about a month. After taking in the Rose Festival parade, she visited at the home of her son, Robert Bathiany in Longview for a couple of weeks. She also visited in Seattle, and spent two days in Everett at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Honzel, formerly well known Brookings residents. Sometime during that month Mrs. Bathiany found time to celebrate her birthday also.

Kenneth Fielder is enjoying a two weeks leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fielder after finishing his boot camp training at the Naval Training Station at San Diego. Don Baughn and Gerald Ramsdell of Brookings, who joined the Navy at the same time as Kenneth, are also home until July 13th, when all three of them are to report back at San Diego on a mine sweeper.

Miss Coral Bessiger of Ashland was a houseguest for two weeks at the home of Miss Kim Wallin at the Wallin home near the Winchuck. When she returned home Thursday Kim accompanied her to spend two weeks as her guest.

Mrs. R. C. Ludlum and son Robert arrived from their home in Santa Barbara last Thursday and joined Mr. Ludlum at their home on Wheeler Creek up the Winchuck. Mr. Ludlum has been here for several weeks.

CAROLYN HANSEN BECOMES BRIDE

At an 8:00 p.m. double ring ceremony last Sat. evening in the Baptist Community Church, Miss Carolyn Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Coblenz, became the bride of Thomas L. King, Rev. Walter Sadler officiating.

Mr. Coblenz gave his daughter away. She wore a beautiful nylon tulle over satin dress. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place with a half hat of satin, and she carried a bouquet of pink rose buds and white daisies. She wore a lovely smile as she went down the aisle on the arm of her father.

Little Kathy Coblenz, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Miss Patricia Herman was maid of honor. She wore a pale green floor length dress and carried a bouquet of deep pink Ester Reed daisies.

The groom wore a light grey suit. His twin brother, Tilford L. King, was best man.

Raymond Hansen, brother of the bride, and Larry Coblenz were candle lighters.

The wedding party stood before a dark green background, which was centered with a cluster of white bells and pale pink roses. A white arch with matching bells stood in the center where the couple exchanged their vows. On either side were two large candle-labars. Two large bouquets of garden flowers in soft pastel colors helped to make the setting.

A hush fell over the audience as Mrs. Viola Mosier sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" in the soft candle light.

The bride's mother wore a soft blue suit with a pink carnation corsage. The groom's mother was unable to attend her son's wedding.

A reception was held in the church annex immediately following the ceremony. A beautiful three tier wedding cake centered the table. Mrs. Tilford L. King poured coffee, Mrs. Jewell Gott poured punch, and Mrs. Goldie Swearingen cut the wedding cake.

Out of town guests were Miss Alice Ornduff, cousin of the bride. A friend Pat Reanon of Portland, Cousin John Ornduff from Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, aunt and uncle of the bride, Crescent City, California and John Smith, cousin, Mr. and Wayne Whitaker, Fortuna California, aunt and uncle of the groom.

The young couple received many beautiful and useful gifts. Mrs. Leta Corner attended to the guest book. Miss Kay O'Hollran officiated at the gift table.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a black and white summer suit with white accessories. After a short honeymoon the Thomas Kings will make their home in Harbor.

Announce Engagement Of Joan Pettegrew

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Pettegrew of Harbor announced the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to Vernon T. Crockett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett, also of Harbor. September 2nd has been set as the wedding date.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Prevo have moved to make their home in Medford. Mr. Prevo had run Ray's Shoe Repair shop by the Harbor Post Office but his health forced them to go to a higher and dryer climate. They had also been looking after the Hall's Cabins for Mrs. A. L. Hall, that responsibility being taken over temporarily by James Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gilmore arrived from Los Angeles last week and are at their home up the Winchuck for the summer.

If anyone knows where there is an old ghost town, please let Frank Kelley in on the whereabouts of it. A ghost town is what the Kelleys went in search of during the recent long weekend but wound up at Alturas with no ghost town found.

Carrol Reekman of Ashland spent the Fourth of July weekend at the home of his mother, Mrs. Milton Foster.
