FIRM ANNOUNCES RATE REDUCTIONS

The Safeco Insurance Company of America announced reductions in auto insurance rates in the states of Washington and Oregon, according to Pete J. Lesmeister, local agent. Reductions will apply to all auto owners, in varying amounts and present policyholders will realize the saving on their next premium notices, according to Lesmeister. He said that they reflect a steadily improving traffic accident record.
"The traffic safety campaigns these two states have been conducting in recent months seem to have been very effective," said Lesmeister. "Safeco's records indicate that the lowering accident rate is sufficiently permanent to warrant a substantial re-slogan 'safety pays' can be taken that motorists of Washington and Oregon are not only saving money, but less pain and distress, but actual cash as well," said Lesmeister.
The Safeco Insurance Company of America is establishing a national record for rapid expansion in the insurance field, according to Lesmeister. Organized a little over a year ago by the founders of the General Insurance Company of America, a fire and casualty company, Safeco has already been entered in 42 states and is represented by more than 3,000 independent agents and brokers. Lesmeister said that the Company was organized to apply the two-fold idea of reducing revolutionary new methods to policy processing and to insure safe drivers only. He stated that
