Harbor News

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Chambers are enjoying a month's visit from their two granddaughters, Yvonne and Donna Chambers of Portland, who accompanied their grandparents home when they returned from a recent trip to Portland.

Mrs. A. L. Hall and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hall, drove up from Richmond Sunday. They are at the Hall's cabins above Harbor which they own. Mrs. A. L. Hall may remain here indefinitely but her son and his family will return to Richmond in two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Devlin and children, Mary and Bruce, of Portland, were houseguests for two days last week at the home of Bob Wilcox. Mr. Davlin, who is a court reporter in Portland, was a classmate of Bob at the Oregon State College.

Mrs. Inez Melvin of Long Beach is visiting her sister, Mrs. May Waterman and niece and family. Mrs. Ralph Keiser. Other visitors at the Keiser home are Mrs. Ralph Keiser Jr. and two children of Canoga Park, California. Mrs. Waterman is showing some improvement in her illness, and is able to have visitors now.

Mrs. Leonard Harvey has received word from her brother, Mervin Stark, that he and his wife had a seven pound six ounce daughter born to them in San Diego on July 7th. They have named her Susan Gail.

Another local family, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Fackrell of Pilot Rock, Oregon are also new parents of an eight pound nine ounce daughter born on July 3rd which they have named Linda Catherine. Mrs. Fackrell is the former Clara McNabb.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Kemske spent a short time last week at the home of his mother, Mrs. S.N. Fischer. Clarke had received his discharge from the Navy on July 8th at Widbey Island. After leaving here they went to Kenwood, California, where they will make their home on a ranch owned by Mrs. Fischer's brother, Paul S. Kemske. Mrs. Fischer and her mother, Mrs. Emile Kemske left the middle of this week to go to Kenwood to visit for a few days.

Miss Agnes Hensley left Wednesday to return to her home in Los Angeles after visiting for ten days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anne Payne. She had been accompanied north by her cousin Mrs. Edith (Kinsy) Malloy of Live Oak who returned home last week. Another cousin, Garrett Fox and his family of Oakland are enjoying a three weeks camping trip on the Chetco near the Upper Summer Bridge.

Mrs. R. E. Stovall and sons, Dennis, Larry and Billy, left Monday for their home in Powell Butte after visiting for five days at the home of Mrs. Stovall's daughters, Mrs. Hazel Ray in Harbor and Mrs. Milton Graber in Brookings.

Mrs. Bertha Beers left last week for Los Angeles where she will take Vocation training under the Indian Service Program now in effect. She is staying with a couple of former residents, Mrs. Anne Schofield and Miss Agnes Hensley until she can locate a place to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holden and Mrs. Holden's mother Mrs. Cramm of Phoenix, Arizona, left for their home Monday after a three weeks visit at the home of W. W. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Struebing had as houseguests over a recent weekend, Mr. Struebing's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Oren (Skeet) Harper of Lahaina, Maui, Hawaii. Mr. Harper is employed by the Pioneer Sargar Co. and they are on a three months vacation to the mainland, coming here from New York. They also attended a family re-union of the Harper family in Payson, Utah.

Other houseguests at the Struebing home are Mrs. Struebing's sister Mrs. Mary Stepro and her aunt, Mrs. Minnie Evans of Los Angeles. They are enjoying getting out in the logging woods and picking berries for jam. They plan to go on to Elkton to visit another sister, Mrs. Paul Applegate, when they leave here, and then to Portland before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Jaklewicz enjoyed a short visit from their niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Garity, who were on their way back to San Diego from a visit with relatives in Aberdeen. Mr. Garity is with the Navy. Mrs. Garity is the former Allison Skipworth who visited here every summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Messer and daughters Vicki and Noma returned home the latter part of the week after a three weeks trip which took them back to Mt. Morris, Illinois, where they visited relatives and Vicki learned to swim. They also swung over into Indiana to visit Mrs. Messer's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pherson, well known former residents. The whole family was glad to see the fog again as they were east during the heat wave, with the nights almost as hot as the days.

Mrs. T. R. Fowler drove to Pacific Beach, Washington last week and brought her granddaughter, Carol Fowler home with her for a month's visit.

Claf Peterson is in a Coos Bay Hospital where his physical condition is being built up so that he can undergo treatments for a heart ailment. He was taken there by Emil Edwardson about ten days ago, who was up there to visit him again this last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Woodruff came to the rescue of the Grange when they were hard pressed for lites for their float for the parade Sunday. They provided enough rose-colored "Sunset Lites" to cover the sides of the float, and which were greatly admired by the crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rogers had Mrs. Rogers' mother Mrs. Anne Thomas and daughter Joanne, her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Driskell, all of Medford, as week end guests. Another sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Keasey of Cupertino, Calif, left Wednesday after spending a week. The Rogers had 22 people for dinner Sunday, including Mrs. Rogers aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoar, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas of Smith River.

HARBOR GIRL WINS DEGREE

One hundred and three summer school students, including one from Harbor, will receive degrees at commencement exercises July 20th, from Eastern Washington College of Education at Cheney, Washington.

Lillian M. Mathews, of Harbor, will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree in education at the ceremonies.

Easton's summer enrollment this year is 800, most of whom are teachers or prospective teachers. In addition to the graduates, 23 students will receive Washington state teachers certificates.
