

Mrs. Jerry Bonn and Mrs. Frances Duvic, were guests of the Emil Moores for the past few days. Mrs. Bonn is the former owner of the Bonn Motel.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. McCarton were called to Myrtle Creek, Sunday due to the serious illness of Mrs. McCarton's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Borg, and children, spent the weekend in Myrtle Creek, their former home.

A group of friends helped Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ackley settle their new quarters in the Kerr Building into something more closely resembling a home.

Harbor News

Mrs. Walter Pearmine returned home last Thursday after being in Los Angeles for the last month with her sister Mrs. J. W. Withrow. She and Mr. Pearmine had been there for the funeral of Mr. Withrow, with Mr. Pearmine returning home about three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fauerso are the proud parents of a seven-month-old six-cousin daughter born at the Seaside Hospital on August 14th. They have named the little miss, Cheryl Ann. She is their second child.

Leslie Ray spent the weekend here from Coquille where he is employed by the Coos-Curry Co-operative. While here he took delivery of a new two-tone green Mustang.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster drove to Cayford State Park near Seaside Sunday to attend the picnic and meeting of the Coos and Curry County Postmasters Association. A. J. Tensing of the Portland Regional office gave an interesting talk and answered all the questions asked him. The next quarterly meeting will be held at Coquille in November.

The names of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Anderson were omitted from the item about Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lively and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Woodruff and their families having been on a camping trip on the North Fork of the Smith River recently. The place, located where the group camped is the same site where Mr. Anderson used to run a trap line, and he had a camp there then. He has been converted to a lily grower now, so trapping is a thing of the past.

Mrs. Hazel Ray was called to Powell Butte last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. R. E. Stovall. Little Tony Ray has been visiting at the Stovall's and he will return with his mother.

Mrs. Howard Wallace and two sons left Monday for Portland to visit for a week with Mrs. Wallace's mother, and to do some shopping.

Hello World

Dr. Ronniger's office reports his escorting into this world a girl, on the 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sedra and a daughter, on the 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Skiles.

Trail crews working in the Eagle Creek country are growling about the familiarity of the jingle worms, local there. So far, they've met up with eight or ten and say they have a bit of trouble locating them, as they are about the same color as the half dead brakes. That particular area, and on up toward the old Tolman ranch, has long been noted for rattlesnakes anyway.

The ladies of St. Timothy's Episcopal Guild are very appreciative of the public's patronage of their Rummage Sale. They realized over $150, a sum which will be put to good use.

Joanne Pettegrew

Honored With Showers

Miss Joanne Pettegrew has been the honoree at two bridal showers during the past week. The first one was given by Miss Dorothy Rowley at her home south of Harbor on Tuesday evening for the younger group. A very pleasant party was spent with Miss Pettegrew receiving many nice presents.

Miss Mattie Keffer and Mrs. Pettegrew gave the second shower on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. E. E. Hansens with about two women present. Appropriate games were played, and again Joanne received lots of nice presents.

The wedding of Miss Pettegrew to Vernon Crockett will take place at the Baptist Community Church the evening of September 2nd. After a short wedding ceremony will follow in the bride's parents' home on the Winchuck River until Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett finish their house on the ocean when they will move to the house on the groom's ranch.

PLANS FOOD SALE

The VFW Auxiliary is holding a food sale this Saturday at Hanscom Shopping Center in Harbor, starting at 10 a.m. Mrs. Alice Bordwell is chairman of the event. The Auxiliary is raising money to put in a stainless steel sink in the VFW Hall kitchen this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brooks's son, Stanley, who lived with his folks here for a time after returning from service in Europe with the Signal Corps during World War II, is now doing research in hops, in Washington and Oregon, working out of O.S.C., Corvallis. He is studying in a field comprising some 1500 acres of vines. Stanley holds a Masters degree in Agriculture, obtained in Missouri, and is now well toward his doctorate. His son, Robert, who was in the Navy during the war, continued in service, and is now completing two years in the Air Police Squadron of which he is commander, in England.

Sid Luce is back in circulation again, came down on the bus from Portland Tuesday morning. Sid has recently undergone four major operations and is now a top candidate for the "Incision Club." Turned loose from the Veterans Hospital, Sid says he's feeling "baby," but will have to take it easy until he gets better acquainted with his revised anatomy.

Mrs. Art Bollinger's sister, Mrs. Teabelle Stanton, from Missoula, Montana, and her brother, Albert Reynolds, from Aitkin, Minnesota have arrived for a couple of weeks visit. They plan a trip to Medford, this weekend, to visit a niece, Mrs. Ted DeFord. Albert has been employed by the Northern Pacific Railroad for the past 35 years.

Mrs. George Widney and Mrs. Clarence Rossiere visited, last week, at McCann, Calif., taking in the Humboldt County Fair on the way back.

GARDEN CLUB TO MEET

The next regular meeting of the Azalea Garden Club will be held Sept. 15th at the VFW Hall. This meeting is to be held in the form of a flower arrangement workshop with Mrs. T. L. McKenna in charge. Bring your containers, flowers and other materials.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Grod welcomed a son, Curtis Roland, into their Ayer, Massachusetts home, August 13th. The newborn weighed a half ounce less than 8 pounds. The new papa taught math at the local high school, two years ago, and the youth's mama will be remembered at Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie, former residents here.

Will McIndoe is now back with the Tisdale's. Recently released after a serious operation, at St.

Reservations Desired

For Garden Club Party

Reservations are essential to the success of the party slated for the evening of September 16, at the VFW Hall. These should be made by phoning 3421 or 2537, so the ladies of the Garden Club can plan accommodations and eats.

Joseph's Hospital in Eureka, Will is feeling fine and figures, after a bit of rest, he'll feel a little better than the ordinary man in his 80's.

Buzz Stewart, our genial artist-plywood maker, with his son, is taking his vacation in the upper reaches of the Chetco. They plan dropping down to the stream from the vicinity of Long Ridge Lookout, camping along the way, with Tinsup Creek at their objective. They have arranged to be picked up by Mrs. Stewart along the end of the week.

Doors will open at 8 p.m., admission is 50 cents a person, and the evening will be spent in any desired card game.

This is a part of the Azalea Garden Club's program of devoting this year's efforts on behalf of the Community Library. Ladies are invited to bring their partners or gentlemen are invited to make up their own tables. Door and sectional prizes will be awarded.

The ladies in charge emphasize reservations are not necessary, but will help, no end, to make the evening more successful. If all goes well, a program of more parties will be developed.
