Harbor News

It isn't every bride that can have her great-grandmother at her wedding, but Mrs. Vernon Crockett (Joanne Pettegrew) can claim that honor. Her great-grandmother, Mrs. George Anderson came over from Grants Pass for the wedding last Friday evening. Other out of town guests at the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiling and Mrs. Gene Reiling, also of Grants Pass. Mrs. Clyde Caton of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hanscom and two children of Sweet Home, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cook (Treva Lee Ann) of Cave Junction, Mrs. Nate Moore of Crescent City and Shirley Lee and Bud Pettegrew of Rees Creek near Eagle Point. The Misses Diana and Shirley Bowlin arrived Friday for the weekend at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bowlin. They are both from Medford now as Diana has been employed in an office there since the first part of July. She has been in Portland going to business school for the past year.

Mrs. L. W. Bowlin and son Gary drove to Mt. Angel on Tuesday where Gary will take his last year of high school at the Mt. Angel Academy. Mrs. Bowlin will then go on into Portland for a medical checkup and to return her grandson, Eugene Bowlin Jr. who had been visiting here for the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Mann are the parents of an eight pound five ounce daughter born at the Seaside Hospital on August 30th. They have named the little miss Margaret Marise.

Mrs. Wade Henderer and two children drove down from Elkton last week for a short visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Weigel. When they returned home, they were accompanied by Charles Henderer who had spent the past month here with his grandparents, Mrs. Henderer's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderer accompanied her on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cate and three children drove to Grand Junction, Colorado last month for a visit at the home of Mr. Cate's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cate. They were gone about ten days.

Make Hike Into Vulcan Lake Country

After reading about a well-known editor having hiked into Vulcan Lake, an ambition to do the same was felt by Mrs. Rollo Sharp, so she and Mrs. Nisck Baumgartner Jr. did that on Labor Day. They and their husbands had spent Saturday at Mistwah Creek on the upper Chetco, then Sunday at the Stoller-Baumgartner mine on Red Mountain, but just the two women made the hike into Vulcan Lake. Mrs. Sharp, so she and Mrs. Nisck worth being sore and tired, but that they had no desire to visit Murphy Lake too.

Other local people that they met up in the Upper Chetco country on Labor Day included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelley, Ben Waldien family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Happy Hoffeldt and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster.

Local visitors to the State Fair happened into a hamburger stand run by Lee and Emil Ridgeway, who for several years lived at the corner of Pioneer Road and Easy Street. They said Lee was still telling folks how he learned to cook in Paris.

Lily digging is getting back into its stride although there are quite a number of growers who are holding off in hopes that their bulbs may gain a bit more growth. Some irrigating is being done as the warmer soil is not good for the bulbs. Some apprehension is felt because of reported increase in nematode damage to root systems. The eel-like, microscopic worms tunnel the roots and render them useless.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Buchanan vacationed in the Reno country, returning Wednesday, if they don't get hooked to run a cook shack on the fires. Their crew at the diner will be mighty glad to see them back what with catering to the holidayers and general run -- and looking after Joe's pipe.

Roy Bolin is going into the strawberry business in a big way on the home ranch, five miles up the Winchuck. Roy has a sunny bench of around three acres, on the river bank. He is getting this worked up, has installed an adequate irrigation system, readying the patch for real berry production. He is also putting in some cane berries. He closed out the Harbor Garage the first of the month.

Carl Stienert, who calls here the first Tuesday of each month, representing the State Department of Veterans Affairs, was here before schedule this month, due to a conference of veterans service officers. It was the first time in several years that this route service man had had only one call to make. In times past, they have ranged up to ten or twelve calls answering veterans problems, especially in reference to home loans, of which there are many in this area.

George and Adelia Hassett and their kids have moved back home out Pioneer Road, from the ranch they had near Gilt, Calif., south of Ashland. George, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hassett, lived here ever since he was a little chap.

Mrs. Clara Kerns and Mrs. Edith Ackley left Wednesday morning on a bus cruise to Victoria, B.C.

The Ray Shannons spent a brief vacation in the San Francisco area, returning Friday.

Murray Brunt, whose home is in San Francisco, left working for the U.S.F.S., this weekend, to re-enter San Jose State College.
