Mrs. May Stafford is engaged in assembling a history of her family—the Travers—who migrated from Pennsylvania to the Dakotas and some of whom are on the Pacific Coast, among them being Mrs. Alice Rausch, a niece of Mrs. Staffords. So far, the genealogist has about 3,000 names, with data on each of the subjects in her files, typed on about two hundred pages. Mrs. Stafford is running down every possible clue to the family members and arranging her data so it will be accessible to others in later years.

Only one new resident reported, so far, this week, by Dr. Gibson—a son, on the 8th, to Mr. and Mrs. David Weldon.

Altar Society Makes Plans For Fall Festival Bazaar

The Brookings Altar Society is making plans for their annual Fall Festival Bazaar, which will be held at the V.F.W. Hall on Saturday, October 29th. A family style turkey dinner will be served. Fancy work, apron, candy and pastry booths are also planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Duayne Notteboom have moved into their new home on Fourth Street, off Easy.

The Otis Gabberrys are gathering up their chattels, getting ready to move into their brand new home on Aldrich Manor.

Work began Monday putting a storm sewer across 101 at its junction with Oak St. The state highway crew is doing the job. Storms have brought water down the hill from the Catholic Church to form a pool at the intersection. It is understood that Oak Street, from 101 to the school grounds, is scheduled for paving in 1956.

Glen Duncan has moved his plumbing and tin-knocking business into the building east of the Shell Station, where the Brookings Auto Parts used to be.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Duncan joined the rest of the family in celebrating Mrs. Duncan's parents' Golden Wedding, in Portland, last weekend.

Rev. and Mrs. Ed McClain, Sherrill, and Ray Westgren, were in Portland over Labor Day. Sherrill enrolled as a freshman in the Multnomah School of the Bible.
