Overseas packages addressed to men and women or their families should be mailed between Oct. 15th and Nov. 15th, according to a notice hanging up in the post-offices. This will assure their arrival in time for Christmas. Some Christmas packages from overseas have already been received here.

A party from the Assembly of God Church visited with Mrs. Swan Carlson, whose home is near the end of Pioneer Road, and her roommate Mrs. Mary Waterman, long time resident of the Winchuck country, both of whom are living at the Community Rest Home in Coquille.

The party conducted youth services, Monday, at Coquille. The party consisted of Rev. and Mrs. Willard Spencer, Marva and Gay Weaver, Viola and Nola Jackson, Marilyn Deeman, Eileen Willis Ted Loring and Jim Huddleston.

The elderly ladies greatly appreciated the visit and thrilled when sung to by a quintet from the group.

Curry County White Satin Sugar contest was held, Saturday, October 1st, at Sixes Grange Hall. Mrs. Docia Sweet was judge with Mrs. Edith Ackley, clerk.

The results were as follows:
Tree fruits: 1st, Mrs. Marion Brooks, Sixes; 2nd, Mrs. Bea Phipps Ophir; 3rd Mrs. Edna Peterson, Ophir.

Berries: 1st, Mrs. Ruth Poff, Ophir; 2nd, Mrs. Marion Brooks, Sixes; 3rd, Mrs. Bea Phipps, Chetco.

Jelly: 1st, Mrs. Olive Britton, Sixes; 2nd, Mrs. Bertha Wilcox, Sixes; 3rd, Mrs. Edith Ackley, Chetco.

First award in each division is to be sent to Portland to be judged in a statewide contest. In the county contest they receive 50 pounds of White Satin Sugar and 2nd and 3rd prize winners receive 25 pounds each.

There were no men entered in the jelly contest this year which is also sponsored by the White Satin Company.
