Letter to the Editor

Dear Friend:
We think you have the best paper in the County, but we are not interested in county affairs and the way our county court is wasting our tax money, but this seems to be what the majority of the voters ask for.

Mr. Earl Dodge is recuperating after having a major surgery on October 12th at Salem. He will spend some time resting at his son's home. In case any friends would like to send cards or write, the address is Earl Dodge, c/o Carl Dodge, 2655 Dalles Road, Salem, Oregon.

Russell White and his cousin, Kenneth Fromm, both of Port Orford, went through town, the middle of the week, enroute to a goose hunt in Klamath county.

Mrs. Albert Joy continues in a serious condition, at the Seaside Hospital, Crescent City.

Mayor Roy Brimm returned from the home of his father, at Puyallup, Washington, to which he was called Monday evening, when his father was reported to be ill. He found his father much better.

Young men, with high-powered rifles, were reported seen traveling north from Harris Beach State Park, Tuesday afternoon, shooting seagulls. Not only did this endanger some women and children who were spending the afternoon along the beach but looking into the penalty for such violations should make anyone very hesitant in this respect. Investigation might turn up that this practice is punishable by the United States government.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pierce spent a few days with the Archie Hendricks, over on the Metolius River.

Mrs. Charles (Betty Goldizen) Morgan, living in the Adak, in the Aleutians, writes that she and the family are doing nicely, and that "Chuck" is kept busy handling heavy SeeBee equipment. Their address is: Box 10, Navy 230, c/o Postmaster, Seattle, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collier left Tuesday noon for San Francisco and points south, on a vacation trip. They are not sure as to their plans when they will return.

INTERNATIONAL GROUP MEETS

About twenty-five members of the Brookings High School International Relations Club met at the home of Erskine Miller, Monday evening. The students wanted to know, from Mr. Miller, the process of establishing correspondents in various parts of the world. Mr. Miller has made this a hobby for several years. To demonstrate the practical side of the project, Mr. Miller selected from his large files, random letters originating from places from almost all over the world and read them to the group who became quite enthusiastic over the project. Mr. Miller also furnished the club with data on where to make overseas contacts.

Following the talk by Mr. Miller there was an enlightening discussion and questions on the topic, after which Mr. and Mrs. Miller served refreshments.

The group is being represented on the faculty by Mr. Frank Fowler, teacher in the Social Sciences. Other meetings are to follow.

Mrs. Laura Leonard and Mrs. Eve Henderson, had word that their mother, Mrs. A. W. Lynch, of Medford, passed away Tuesday evening. Funeral services will be held in her home town, Thursday. Mrs. Lynch, in her 90's, had previously suffered a heart attack. She is survived by other children living in Jackson county.
